THE REBELS REPULSED

Filipinos Attacked a Patrol, Who Were Reinforced.

THEIR AMMUNITION CAPTURED.

Consuls in Manila Received Book of Correspondence From Filipinos—Spanish Who Tried to Desert Killed By Rebels. Brave Fight of Macabebes.

MANILA, Oct. 19.—A body of 25 Filipinos attacked a railroad patrol of eight men, members of the Seventeenth regiment, at Guiguinto, north of Bulacan, wounding two.

The Americans reinforced the patrol and drove off the enemy, capturing a quantity of ammunition.

The consuls in Manila received from Talar, where it was believed Aguinaldo remained, a book containing the correspondence between him and the American commanders and consuls in which, as he contended in his recent appeal for recognition, the Filipinos found the basis for their assertion that the American government recognized their sovereignty and promised them independence.

The book was addressed to the members of the United States congress and contained a long argument by Senor Buencamino, of the so-called cabinet of Aguinaldo and alleged letters written by Wildman, United States consul at Hongkong, to Aguinaldo in June and July of last year. It has made a sensation among the Spaniards here.

Replying to Aguinaldo's request that the Americans would arrange for the shipment of the Spanish prisoners to Hongkong, relieving the Filipinos of the expense of maintaining them. Mr. Wildman wrote:

"Never mind feeding them. A meal every day of rice and water will be a good diet. They have been living too high during the last few years. As the Spaniards want more bloodshed in the Philippines, I trust you will give them a taste of real war. Do not be so tender with them. Handle them as they would treat you."

Mr. Wildman's letter dealt largely with the shipment of arms.

The whole correspondence, however, contained no promises of independence. Senor Buencamino laid stress upon letters from Admiral Dewey and Gen. Anderson requesting passes for American officers and others to visit Filipino territory, and upon a letter from Gen. Anderson asking "you and your people to co-operate with us in military operations against the Spaniards."

Gen. Otis received messages purporting to come from the insurgent general, Pio del Pilar, offering to sell out his army and to deliver Aguinaldo into the hands of the Americans. Although he is not satisfied that this offer is authentic it is not in any case irrevocable. The policy of Gen. Otis is firmly set against buying any surrenders.

Pio del Pilar offered for the sum of $50,000 to refrain from attacking Manila with his army; for the sum of $250,000 he offered to surrender his army after a sham battle, both sides firing into the air, and for the sum of $500,000 he said he would procure the overthrow of the insurrection and the capture of Aguinaldo, Paterno and the other leaders.

In the course of the communication he referred to Aguinaldo in contemptuous terms, indicating that strained relations existed between them.

Reports were being received from the districts occupied by the enemy that the Filipinos believed that Pio del Pilar had an audacious plan to break through the American lines into Manila and seize General Otis and the archbishop. Possibly these rumors were started with an idea of helping him to make a deal with the Americans.

It is unnecessary to say that the Americans would welcome an attack of that sort. There has been much speculation of late regarding the whereabouts of Pio del Pilar. The recent attack at La Loma was credited to him. It was believed that he was in the vicinity of San Mateo valley with a force of from 1,800 to 3,000 men.

Ten former Spanish soldiers, who were captured by the Filipinos and for a time acted as officers and members of a Filipino artillery regiment located in the vicinity of Santa Rosa, in the Laguna de Bay district, determined to surrender the artillery to the Americans. The plot was discovered by the Filipinos, who killed seven of the conspirators, the other three making their escape to Manila.

It appeared that when the surrender was determined upon the Spaniards delegated one of their number to proceed to Manila and to propose to General Otis to surrender after a prearranged mock battle, about 12 pieces, including Krupp and Nordenfolt rapid-fire guns, well supplied with ammunition from the Lipa powder factory, in exchange for certain sums to be paid the Spaniards, who were to be pardoned for carrying arms against the Americans and to be transported to Spain.

The delegate left Santa Rosa and accompanied by three Filipinos entered the American lines at Calamba. The Filipinos did not proceed, deciding to await his return at a given time. As the delegate was detained in Manila longer than they had expected they grew suspicious and returned to Santa Rosa. The plot was then revealed and the remaining Spaniards were attacked.

The gunboat Nipadan, coasting near Santa Rosa, perceived two men on the beach hurriedly embarking in a canoe and pushing out toward them. She took them on board, and they reported that the Filipinos, on discovering the plot to surrender the artillery, had cut the throats of seven of their Spanish companions and that they themselves had barely escaped with their lives.

The three Spaniards were hiding in Manila, fearing Filipino vengeance. General Otis had declined their offer through the delegate to surrender the artillery for money, but he promised to send the three to Spain.

Batson's Macabebes scouts encountered the enemy at San Mateo, near Arayat, and attacked them on the front and flank, driving them one of the trenches and dispersing them completely.

Several Filipinos, including a captain and a lieutenant, were killed. A quantity of arms was captured.

The Macabebes had one man killed.

SOLDIERS' WIFE PROTESTED.

Lady Made a Sensation at Anti-Imperialists' Convention—Cockran Addressed Meeting.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The anti-imperialist meeting at Central Music hall came to a close, Hon. Bourke Cockran of New York delivering an oration. Mr. Cockran based his objection to the policy of the government on the broad ground that one people had no right to force a government upon another.

He discussed the question in a dispassionate manner, claiming that there were many reasons why the United States should hold the islands, but no reason why it should attempt to force upon any people a form of government to which that people objected.

During a speech by Rev. Bigelow, of Cincinnati, a sensation was caused by a stylish dressed woman who arose in the audience and extending her gloved hand toward the American flag which hung suspended over the speaker, exclaimed: "Take down the flag, don't disgrace it any longer." She was hurried from the hall by a friend and as she left the building she refused to give her name, but said she was the sister of one soldier, daughter of another and wife of another—all of them now fighting in the Philippines.

In the resolutions unanimously adopted, the policy of the present national administration is condemned and the immediate cessation of the Philippine war demanded.

Continuing they said in part: "We propose to contribute to the defeat of any person or party that stands for the forcible subjugation of any people."

DEFENSE PUT FORTH BY MERRIAM.

Declared the Abuse of Idaho Strikers Was by State Authorities.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The report of General Merriam upon the Idaho riots was made public here. General Merriam disclaimed all responsibility for the order refusing employment to union men in the mines. He said that this regulation was drawn by the state authorities and his only connection with it was to liberalize certain of its provisions, after which he placed his name at the bottom with the words "examined and approved."

The other point which he made was that the prisoners, of whom at one time there were more than 400, were not properly cared for until he had called the attention of the state authorities to the matter, after which their condition was materially improved.

Princeton Beat Pennsylvania State.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 19.—The Princeton football team defeated Pennsylvania State college 12 to 0.

BRYAN IN OHIO TODAY

Made a Speech at Greenville This Morning

WITH McLEAN AND OTHER LEADERS

An Enthusiastic Escort Accompanied Him Across the River From Covington, Ky. A Reply Made to Anti-Goebel Candidate for Governor.

GREENVILLE, O., Oct. 19.—William J. Bryan arrived here this morning on his speechmaking tour through Ohio, with him were John R. McLean, Democratic candidate for governor, and other Democratic leaders. The party left Dayton early this morning, whence Mr. Bryan had gone last night from Cincinnati, having closed his speechmaking tour in Kentucky at Covington.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 19.—Mr. Bryan was met at the meeting in Covington by Hon. Allen O. Myers and others, representing the Ohio Democratic committee, and afterward escorted to a special train in waiting here for the Ohio tour. Many from Cincinnati had crossed the river to hear Bryan and Goebel, and a great line of escort formed to follow the carriages to this side of the river. Mr. Bryan spoke from a platform in Park Place in Covington, and it is estimated that 20,000 people surrounded it. When he stopped speaking there was a rush for the platform to shake hands. Many were badly crushed in the crowd and it was feared the platform would give way. Mr. Bryan was escorted to Ohio by great crowds with blazing lights along the way, but he declined a public reception and repaired at once to his car, leaving at 11 p. m. for Dayton.

COVINGTON, Ky., Oct. 19.—When the Bryan train reached Covington last night an enormous crowd assembled at the depot and the enthusiasm displayed was as great as that at any point along the route from Bardwell to Covington.

Mr. Bryan's address was largely a repetition of those delivered at various points throughout this state, the chief feature of which was a plea for the regular nominee as a guarantee for success next year and for the return of Senator Blackburn to the United States senate.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 19.—Twenty thousand people greeted William J. Bryan and the candidates on the Democratic state ticket at Churchill Downs yesterday afternoon.

The barbecue was the feature. They spent three hours at the Jockey club grounds, all full of speechmaking, and then resumed their trip to Covington.

A notable part of the program was played by the Cook County Marching club of Chicago, which, 300 strong, came accompanied by five brass bands. Today they will take a trip to the Blue Grass region, touching Frankfort, Lexington and Paris, jumping into the midst of the Ohio campaign on Friday at Cincinnati.

Mr. Bryan began his speech by reading a letter from John Young Brown, which had been handed to him on his arrival in the city.

The letter cited the statements concerning the agreement of Goebel and Stone by which they were to combine their forces for the purpose of securing the organization of the Louisville convention, and asked whether, "after over 300 men were placed in the convention instead of the delegates selected," the convention could give Goebel the nomination of the party. He also asked whether such a contract was not fraudulent.

Gov. Brown further asked whether a chairman had the right to deny an appeal; whether armed police in the convention was not a menace to free government; whether Bryan was in favor of the Goebel election law, and lastly whether Bryan had any plea save that of political expediency to justify submission.

Mr. Bryan said in part on the subject of the letter:

"I want to say that I did not come to sit in judgment on any convention. I did not come to discuss the details of an election law. I come to say, and I say with emphasis, that if there was anything done in that convention that a Democrat does not think ought to have been done, I ask of that Democrat what his remedy is. Is it to elect a Republican governor and Republican officials? The man who tries to correct a Democratic convention by electing a Republican governor assumes responsibility for all that governor does after he has been elected."

GIVEN TO THE JURY.

The Judge's Charge Made in the Ingham and Newitt Case.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—United States District Attorney Beck made the closing argument in the government case against Ellery P. Ingham and Harvey K. Newitt, the lawyers charged with conspiracy and bribery in connection with the Lancaster revenue stamp counterfeiting plot.

Judge McPherson's charge to the jury showed no traces of partiality, the burden of responsibility for the verdict being placed upon the 12 good men and true. One point on which he dwelt at length was the credibility of the witnesses, more especially where the evidence of the secret service operatives was concerned. He said detectives were an absolute necessity, and to reject their testimony because their profession required subterfuge would be wholly unwarranted.

The testimony of criminals is also worthy of belief, he said, where there is sufficient corroboration.

Of the two stories his honor said obviously but one could be true and the jury must decide by the corroboration which to believe. That money had been passed from Kendig to Ingham and Newitt and from them to McManus was conceded. The question was as to what use this money was to be applied.

The case was given to the jury.

HADLEY NOW PRESIDENT OF YALE.

Inaugurated by Fitting Ceremonies—Distinguished Men Present.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 19.—Arthur Twining Hadley, LL. D., was inaugurated as president of Yale university in this city. Among those who attended the ceremony were: The presidents of Harvard, Princeton, Columbia, Cornell, Chicago, Brown, Oberlin and many other universities and colleges; federal officers, distinguished men of science and letters, diplomats and men of business.

The retiring president, Dr. Timothy Dwight, made the opening prayer. The Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Twicell of Hartford, the senior member of the Yale corporation, then formally inducted Dr. Hadley into office and administered the oath, after which President Hadley delivered his inaugural address.

Prof. George P. Fisher, dean of the Yale Theological school, delivered an address of welcome.

The benediction was pronounced by ex-President Dwight.

The new president held a reception at the art school. Yale students paraded at night.

A WARNING TO POSTMASTERS.

Must Not Level Political Assessments During the Campaign.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The postmaster general issued a formal warning to all postmasters against the levy of political assessments and simultaneously the civil service commission called attention to the law governing the subject and of the commission's intention to enforce it.

This general warning is similar to that issued heretofore prior to political campaigns and, it is understood, follows complaints of specific violation of the law received from Ohio and other states where elections are to be held this year.

Forest Fires In West Virginia.

PARSONS, W. Va., Oct. 19.—Immense forest fires, miles in extent, raged in the mountains near here. Millions of feet of lumber were being burned up and other property was in imminent danger. Residents had to fight to keep the fire out of Henricks, about three miles from here, and it looked as if similar danger would be experienced. Smoke like a dense fog hung over the town.

Three Volunteer Firemen Killed.

KNIGHTSTOWN, Ind., Oct. 19.—Three lives were lost and property worth $100,000 was destroyed in a fire here. The dead are: Truman Rhodes, Chas. Scutter and Fon Davey. The men were members of the volunteer fire department, and were fighting the flames when the front walls fell outward.

Suit Brought Against Marconi.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Lyman C. Larned of Boston has brought suit in the United States circuit court against Guglielmo Marconi to restrain him and his agents from using the system of wireless telegraphy, which Larned claims is an infringement of a patent now controlled by him, and the alleged invention of Amos Emerson Dolbear.

BATTLE LIKELY TODAY

Combined Forces Moving on Ladysmith.

MAFEKING PROBABLY HOLDS OUT.

Rumor of White Flag Being Raised Not Believed—All Well at Kimberley With the British—Thirty Boers Killed Near Mafeking.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—There is still no authentic news from Mafeking, but all reports tend to confirm the belief that Colonel Baden Powell is holding his own, and no credit is given to the vague rumor that a flag of truce had been displayed.

A considerable engagement is anticipated in the vicinity of Ladysmith today. The combined advance of Boers and Free State troops in this direction has been executed with not inconsiderable skill and shows a clear appreciation of the British position. General Sir George Stewart White has 12,000 men and 46 guns available, besides a considerable force of volunteers, to hold Ladysmith, and no anxiety is felt on his account, for the Natal country, where the engagement is expected, is fairly open, and although the work of moving them will be difficult, the guns are likely to do good work.

The country is not favorable for Boer tactics and it will be very difficult for them to avoid the exposure of their flanks to attack by a vigorous and mobile enemy already occupying useful positions, that is, supposing they really mean to fight and not merely to attempt to draw General White farther out with a view of surrounding him.

General White has a large body of excellent cavalry, which will be put to good use.

The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Ladysmith says no newspaper representatives are allowed to proceed from there either to Besters station or Acton Homes, and adds that Gen. Joubert's forces are moving against Glencoe and Besters station on the Heurismith-Lynch line.

According to the same authority some volunteers who had just come into Ladysmith from Besters station and Acton Homes before the despatch was sent, reported that 300 Boers tried ineffectually to cut off small parties of British troops, but the Natal men were too wary to be caught and retired firing.

Two thousand Boers were engaged at Acton Homes and rather fewer at Besters station. It is reported that the enemy there is hemmed in and suffering severely.

The Daily Telegraph, commenting on the foregoing dispatch from its correspondent, says it is difficult to understand the references to Glencoe and Besters station, except on the theory that Commandant General Joubert is dividing his forces.

The Times Lobatsi correspondent telegraphing under date of Oct. 14 says:

"The Boers were around us all day yesterday and broke up the line in several places between Pietsani and Mafeking. They were attacked and defeated by a party of our men from Mafeking. Thirty Boers were killed during the night. Another lot broke up the line a mile north of Lobatsi, cutting the wires. The stationmaster and all of us here set to work and have just restored communication."

"A runner has arrived bringing news of Colonel Baden Powell's success in keeping the enemy at bay."

The Cape Town correspondent of The Times, under date of Tuesday, said:

"All is well at Kimberley, though communication is almost entirely cut. There is no means of learning anything that happens north of the Orange river, unless perhaps by way of Rhodesia and Beira."

Discussed Trade With China.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—Prominent men, who either in official or mercantile life have been actively engaged in the trade between China and the United States, England and other countries, discussed that trade as it is, and as it should be, before the International Commercial congress.

Declared For Pittsburg Faction.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 19.—Judge Simonson decided the Socialist-Labor party contention as to which faction was entitled to a place on the official ballot in favor of the Pittsburg, or Clark, faction.

A considerable engagement is anticipated in the vicinity of Ladysmith today. The combined advance of Boers and Free State troops in this direction has been executed with not inconsiderable skill and shows a clear appreciation of the British position. General Sir George Stewart White has 12,000 men and 46 guns available, besides a considerable force of volunteers, to hold Ladysmith, and no anxiety is felt on his account, for the Natal country, where the engagement is expected, is fairly open, and although the work of moving them will be difficult, the guns are likely to do good work.

The country is not favorable for Boer tactics and it will be very difficult for them to avoid the exposure of their flanks to attack by a vigorous and mobile enemy already occupying useful positions, that is, supposing they really mean to fight and not merely to attempt to draw General White farther out with a view of surrounding him.

General White has a large body of excellent cavalry, which will be put to good use.

The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Ladysmith says no newspaper representatives are allowed to proceed from there either to Besters station or Acton Homes, and adds that Gen. Joubert's forces are moving against Glencoe and Besters station on the Heurismith-Lynch line.

According to the same authority some volunteers who had just come into Ladysmith from Besters station and Acton Homes before the despatch was sent, reported that 300 Boers tried ineffectually to cut off small parties of British troops, but the Natal men were too wary to be caught and retired firing.

Two thousand Boers were engaged at Acton Homes and rather fewer at Besters station. It is reported that the enemy there is hemmed in and suffering severely.

The Daily Telegraph, commenting on the foregoing dispatch from its correspondent, says it is difficult to understand the references to Glencoe and Besters station, except on the theory that Commandant General Joubert is dividing his forces.

The Times Lobatsi correspondent telegraphing under date of Oct. 14 says:

"The Boers were around us all day yesterday and broke up the line in several places between Pietsani and Mafeking. They were attacked and defeated by a party of our men from Mafeking. Thirty Boers were killed during the night. Another lot broke up the line a mile north of Lobatsi, cutting the wires. The stationmaster and all of us here set to work and have just restored communication."

"A runner has arrived bringing news of Colonel Baden Powell's success in keeping the enemy at bay."

The Cape Town correspondent of The Times, under date of Tuesday, said:

"All is well at Kimberley, though communication is almost entirely cut. There is no means of learning anything that happens north of the Orange river, unless perhaps by way of Rhodesia and Beira."

15TH YEAR. NO. 112.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, OCT. 19, 1899.

TWO CENTS

THE REBELS REPULSED

Filipinos Attacked a Patrol, Who Were Reinforced.

THEIR AMMUNITION CAPTURED.

Consuls in Manila Received Book of Correspondence From Filipinos—Spanish Who Tried to Desert Killed By Rebels. Brave Fight of Macabebes.

MANILA, Oct. 19.—A body of 25 Filipinos attacked a railroad patrol of eight men, members of the Seventeenth regiment, at Guiguinto, north of Bulacan, wounding two.

The Americans reinforced the patrol and drove off the enemy, capturing a quantity of ammunition.

The consuls in Manila received from Tarlac, where it was believed Aguinaldo remained, a book containing the correspondence between him and the American commanders and consuls in which, as he contended in his recent appeal for recognition, the Filipinos found the basis for their assertion that the American government recognized their sovereignty and promised them independence.

The book was addressed to the members of the United States congress and contained a long argument by Senor Buencamino, of the so-called cabinet of Aguinaldo and alleged letters written by Wildman, United States consul at Hongkong, to Aguinaldo in June and July of last year. It has made a sensation among the Spaniards here.

Replying to Aguinaldo's request that the Americans would arrange for the shipment of the Spanish prisoners to Hongkong, relieving the Filipinos of the expense of maintaining them. Mr. Wildman wrote:

"Never mind feeding them. A meal every day of rice and water will be a good diet. They have been living too high during the last few years. As the Spaniards want more bloodshed in the Philippines, I trust you will give them a taste of real war. Do not be so tender with them. Handle them as they would treat you."

Mr. Wildman's letter dealt largely with the shipment of arms.

The whole correspondence, however, contained no promises of independence. Senor Buencamino laid stress upon letters from Admiral Dewey and Gen. Anderson requesting passes for American officers and others to visit Filipino territory, and upon a letter from Gen. Anderson asking "you and your people to co-operate with us in military operations against the Spaniards."

Gen. Otis received messages purporting to come from the insurgent general, Pio del Pilar, offering to sell out his army and to deliver Aguinaldo into the hands of the Americans. Although he is not satisfied that this offer is authentic it is not in a really imitable. The policy of Gen. Otis is firmly set against buying any surrenders.

Pio del Pilar offered for the sum of $50,000 to refrain from attacking Manila with his army; for the sum of $250,000 he offered to surrender his army after a sham battle, both sides firing into the air, and for the sum of $500,000 he said he would procure the overthrow of the insurrection and the capture of Aguinaldo, Paterno and the other leaders.

In the course of the communication he referred to Aguinaldo in contemptuous terms, indicating that strained relations existed between them.

Reports were being received from the districts occupied by the enemy that the Filipinos believed that Pio del Pilar had an audacious plan to break through the American lines into Manila and seize General Otis and the archbishop. Possibly these rumors were started with an idea of helping him to make a deal with the Americans.

It is unnecessary to say that the Americans would welcome an attack of that sort. There has been much speculation of late regarding the whereabouts of Pio del Pilar. The recent attack at La Loma was credited to his men. It was believed that he was in the vicinity of San Mateo valley with a force of from 1,800 to 3,000 men.

Ten former Spanish soldiers, who were captured by the Filipinos and for a time acted as officers and members of a Filipino artillery regiment located in the vicinity of Santa Rosa, in the Laguna de Bay district, determined to surrender the artillery to the Americans. The plot was discovered by the Filipinos, who killed seven of the conspirators, the other three making their escape to Manila.

It appeared that when the surrender was determined upon the Spaniards delegated one of their number to proceed to Manila and to propose to General Otis to surrender after a prearranged mock battle, about 12 pieces, including Krupp and Nordenfolt rapid-fire guns, well supplied with ammunition from the Lapa powder factory, in exchange for certain sums to be paid the Spaniards, who were to be pardoned for carrying arms against the Americans and to be transported to Spain.

The delegate left Santa Rosa and accompanied by three Filipinos entered the American lines at Calamba. The Filipinos did not proceed, deciding to await his return at a given time. As the delegate was detained in Manila longer than they had expected they grew suspicious and returned to Santa Rosa. The plot was then revealed and the remaining Spaniards were attacked. The gunboat Napidan, coasting near Santa Rosa, perceived two men on the beach hurriedly embarking in a canoe and pushing out toward them. She took them on board, and they reported that the Filipinos, on discovering the plot to surrender the artillery, had cut the throats of seven of their Spanish companions and that they themselves had barely escaped with their lives.

The three Spaniards were hiding in Manila, fearing Filipino vengeance. General Otis had declined their offer through the delegate to surrender the artillery for money, but he promised to send the three to Spain.

Batson's Macabebe scouts encountered the enemy at San Mateo, near Arayat, and attacked them on the front and flank, driving them one of the trenches and dispersing them completely.

Several Filipinos, including a captain and a lieutenant, were killed. A quantity of arms was captured.

The Macabebes had one man killed.

SOLDIERS' WIFE PROTESTED.

Lady Made a Sensation at Anti-Imperialists' Convention—Cockran Addressed Meeting.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The anti-imperialist meeting at Central Music hall came to a close, Hon. Bourke Cockran of New York delivering an oration. Mr. Cockran based his objection to the policy of the government on the broad ground that one people had no right to force a government upon another.

He discussed the question in a dispassionate manner, claiming that there were many reasons why the United States should hold the islands, but no reason why it should attempt to force upon any people a form of government to which that people objected.

During a speech by Rev. Bigelow, of Cincinnati, a sensation was caused by a stately dressed woman who arose in the audience and extending her gloved hand toward the American flag which hung suspended over the speaker, exclaimed: "Take down the flag, don't disgrace it any longer." She was hurried from the hall by a friend and as she left the building she refused to give her name, but said she was the sister of one soldier, daughter of another and wife of another—all of them now fighting in the Philippines.

In the resolutions unanimously adopted, the policy of the present national administration is condemned and the immediate cessation of the Philippine war demanded.

Continuing they said in part: "We propose to contribute to the defeat of any person or party that stands for the forcible subjugation of any people."

DEFENSE PUT FORTH BY MERRIAM.

Declared the Abuse of Idaho Strikers Was by State Authorities.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The report of General Merriam upon the Idaho riots was made public here. General Merriam disclaimed all responsibility for the order refusing employment to union men in the mines. He said that this regulation was drawn by the state authorities and his only connection with it was to liberalize certain of its provisions, after which he placed his name at the bottom with the words "examined and approved."

The other point which he made was that the prisoners, of whom at one time there were more than 400, were not properly cared for until he had called the attention of the state authorities to the matter, after which their condition was materially improved.

Princeton Beat Pennsylvania State.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 19.—The Princeton football team defeated Pennsylvania State college 12 to 0.

BRYAN IN OHIO TODAY

Made a Speech at Greenville This Morning

WITH McLEAN AND OTHER LEADERS

An Enthusiastic Escort Accompanied Him Across the River From Covington, Ky. A Reply Made to Anti-Goebel Candidate for Governor.

GREENVILLE, O., Oct. 19.—William J. Bryan arrived here this morning on his speechmaking tour through Ohio, with him were John R. McLean, Democratic candidate for governor, and other Democratic leaders. The party left Dayton early this morning, whence Mr. Bryan had gone last night from Cincinnati, having closed his speechmaking tour in Kentucky at Covington.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 19.—Mr. Bryan was met at the meeting in Covington by Hon. Allen O. Myers and others, representing the Ohio Democratic committee, and afterward escorted to a special train in waiting here for the Ohio tour. Many from Cincinnati had crossed the river to hear Bryan and Goebel, and a great line of escort formed to follow the carriages to this side of the river. Mr. Bryan spoke from a platform in Park Place in Covington, and it is estimated that 20,000 people surrounded it. When he stopped speaking there was a rush for the platform to shake hands. Many were badly crushed in the crowd and it was feared the platform would give way. Mr. Bryan was escorted to Ohio by great crowds with blazing lights along the way, but he declined a public reception and repaired at once to his car, leaving at 11 p. m. for Dayton.

COVINGTON, Ky., Oct. 19.—When the Bryan train reached Covington last night an enormous crowd assembled at the depot and the enthusiasm displayed was as great as that at any point along the route from Bardwell to Covington.

Mr. Bryan's address was largely a repetition of those delivered at various points throughout this state, the chief feature of which was a plea for the regular nominee as a guarantee for success next year and for the return of ex-Senator Blackburn to the United States senate.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 19.—Twenty thousand people greeted William J. Bryan and the candidates on the Democratic state ticket at Churchill Downs yesterday afternoon.

The barbecue was the feature. They spent three hours at the Jockey club grounds, all full of speechmaking, and then resumed their trip to Covington.

A notable part of the program was played by the Cook County Marching club of Chicago, which, 300 strong, came accompanied by five brass bands. Today they will take a trip to the Blue Grass region, touching Frankfort, Lexington and Paris, jumping into the midst of the Ohio campaign on Friday at Cincinnati.

Mr. Bryan began his speech by reading a letter from John Young Brown, which had been handed to him on his arrival in the city.

The letter cited the statements concerning the agreement of Goebel and Stone by which they were to combine their forces for the purpose of securing the organization of the Louisville convention, and asked whether, "after over 300 men were placed in the convention instead of the delegates selected," the convention could give Goebel the nomination of the party. He also asked whether such a contract was not fraudulent.

Gov. Brown further asked whether a chairman had the right to deny an appeal; whether armed police in the convention was not a menace to free government; whether Bryan was in favor of the Goebel election law, and lastly whether Bryan had any plea save that of political expediency to justify submission.

Mr. Bryan said in part on the subject of the letter:

"I want to say that I did not come to sit in judgment on any convention. I did not come to discuss the details of an election law. I come to say, and I say with emphasis, that if there was anything done in that convention that a Democrat does not think ought to have been done, I ask of that Democrat what his remedy is. Is it to elect a Republican governor and Republican officials? The man who tries to correct a Democratic convention by electing a Republican governor assumes responsibility for all that governor does after he has been elected."

all that governor does after he has been elected."

GIVEN TO THE JURY.

The Judge's Charge made in the Ingham and Newitt Case.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—United States District Attorney Beck made the closing argument in the government case against Ellery P. Ingham and Harvey K. Newitt, the lawyers charged with conspiracy and bribery in connection with the Lancaster revenue stamp counterfeiting plot.

Judge McPherson's charge to the jury showed no traces of partiality, the burden of responsibility for the verdict being placed upon the 12 good men and true. One point on which he dwelt at length was the credibility of the witnesses, more especially where the evidence of the secret service operatives was concerned. He said detectives were an absolute necessity, and to reject their testimony because their profession required subterfuge would be wholly unwarranted.

The testimony of criminals is also worthy of belief, he said, where there is sufficient corroboration.

Of the two stories his honor said obviously but one could be true and the jury must decide by the corroboration which to believe. That money had been passed from Kendig to Ingham and Newitt and from them to McManus was conceded. The question was as to what use this money was to be applied.

The case was given to the jury.

HADLEY NOW PRESIDENT OF YALE.

Inaugurated by Fitting Ceremonies—Distinguished Men Present.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 19.—Arthur Twining Hadley, LL. D., was inaugurated as president of Yale university in this city. Among those who attended the ceremony were: The presidents of Harvard, Princeton, Columbia, Cornell, Chicago, Brown, Oberlin and many other universities and colleges; federal officers, distinguished men of science and letters, diplomats and men of business.

The retiring president, Dr. Timothy Dwight, made the opening prayer. The Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Twinnell of Hartford, the senior member of the Yale corporation, then formally inducted Dr. Hadley into office and administered the oath, after which President Hadley delivered his inaugural address.

Prof. George P. Fisher, dean of the Yale Theological school, delivered an address of welcome.

The benediction was pronounced by ex-President Dwight.

The new president held a reception at the art school. Yale students paraded at night.

A WARNING TO POSTMASTERS.

Must Not Level Political Assessments During the Campaign.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The postmaster general issued a formal warning to all postmasters against the levy of political assessments and simultaneously the civil service commission called attention to the law governing the subject and of the commission's intention to enforce it.

This general warning is similar to that issued heretofore prior to political campaigns and, it is understood, follows complaints of specific violation of the law received from Ohio and other states where elections are to be held this year.

Forest Fires In West Virginia.

PARSONS, W. Va., Oct. 19.—Immense forest fires, miles in extent, raged in the mountains near here. Millions of feet of lumber were being burned up and other property was in imminent danger. Residents had to fight to keep the fire out of Hendricks, about three miles from here, and it looked as if similar danger would be experienced. Smoke like a dense fog hung over the town.

Three Volunteer Firemen Killed.

KNIGHTSTOWN, Ind., Oct. 19.—Three lives were lost and property worth $100,000 was destroyed in a fire here. The dead are: Truman Rhodes, Chas. Scutter and Fon Davey. The men were members of the volunteer fire department, and were fighting the flames when the front walls fell outward.

Suit Brought Against Marconi.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Lyman C. Larned of Boston has brought suit in the United States circuit court against Guglielmo Marconi to restrain him and his agents from using the system of wireless telegraphy, which Larned claims is an infringement of a patent now controlled by him, and the alleged invention of Amos Emerson Dolbear.

BATTLE LIKELY TODAY

Combined Forces Moving on Ladysmith.

MAFEKING PROBABLY HOLDS OUT.

Rumor of White Flag Being Raised Not Believed—All Well at Kimberley With the British—Thirty Boers Killed Near Mafeking.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—There is still no authentic news from Mafeking, but all reports tend to confirm the belief that Colonel Baden Powell is holding his own, and no credit is given to the vague rumor that a flag of truce had been displayed.

A considerable engagement is anticipated in the vicinity of Ladysmith today. The combined advance of Boers and Free State troops in this direction has been executed with not inconsiderable skill and shows a clear appreciation of the British position. General Sir George Stewart White has 12,000 men and 46 guns available, besides a considerable force of volunteers, to hold Ladysmith, and no anxiety is felt on his account, for the Natal country, where the engagement is expected, is fairly open, and although the work of moving them will be difficult, the guns are likely to do good work.

The country is not favorable for Boer tactics and it will be very difficult for them to avoid the exposure of their flanks to attack by a vigorous and mobile enemy already occupying useful positions, that is, supposing they really mean to fight and not merely to attempt to draw General White farther out with a view of surrounding him.

General White has a large body of excellent cavalry, which will be put to good use.

The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Ladysmith says no newspaper representatives are allowed to proceed from there either to Besters station or Acton Homes, and adds that Gen. Joubert's forces are moving against Glencoe and Besters station on the Heurismith-Lynch line.

According to the same authority some volunteers who had just come into Ladysmith from Besters station and Acton Homes before the despatch was sent, reported that 300 Boers tried ineffectually to cut off small parties of British troops, but the Natal men were too wary to be caught and retired firing.

Two thousand Boers were engaged at Acton Homes and rather fewer at Besters station. It is reported that the enemy there is hemmed in and suffering severely.

The Daily Telegraph, commenting on the foregoing dispatch from its correspondent, says it is difficult to understand the references to Glencoe and Besters station, except on the theory that Commandant General Joubert is dividing his forces.

The Times Lobatsi correspondent telegraphing under date of Oct. 14 says:

"The Boers were around us all day yesterday and broke up the line in several places between Pietsani and Mafeking. They were attacked and defeated by a party of our men from Mafeking. Discussed Trade With China.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—Prominent men, who either in official or mercantile life have been actively engaged in the trade between China and the United States, England and other countries, discussed that trade as it is, and as it should be, before the International Commercial congress.

Declared For Pittsburg Faction.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 19.—Judge Simon-ton decided the Socialist-Labor party contention as to which faction was entitled to a place on the official ballot in favor of the Pittsburg, or Clark, faction.

THE EAST END.

WILL BE SLOW WORK

Filling In the Gap Near Ralston's Crossing.

ENGINE AT LAUGHLIN'S STARTED

Officials Pleased With the Way the Machinery Works--Second M. E. Church Wants Some Money--Conductors Applying For Positions Out of Town.

This morning the street railway company put a large force of men at work filling in at the new trestle, east of Ralston's crossing. At the rate dirt is being dumped over the trestle it is a hard matter for even the company to say when the work will be completed. The dump car will make one round trip every 24 minutes and it cannot carry more than 25 bushels of earth on one trip.

The new culvert is about completed. Strong retaining walls have been constructed at both ends of the culvert. This is quite an improvement over the old culvert. When the work has been completed in its entirety about $1,000 will have been expended.

ENGINE WAS STARTED.

First Test Was Made at Laughlin's New Plant Yesterday.

For the past three weeks steam has been raised every day in the new Laughlin pottery, and yesterday the new engine was started for the first time. Manager Harker and several members of the company were present when the trial was made, and they were highly pleased with the trial. Mr. Harker stated it would be a hard matter to tell how soon the making of ware would be commenced, as it depended entirely upon the machinists.

AFTER OTHER POSITIONS.

Conductors of the Street Railway Company Want on Salem Line.

One of the conductors of the street railway line stated last evening that several who were affected by the recent order of the company have applied for positions as motormen on the new electric line now being built between Salem and Alliance.

There are no conductors on the cars during the evening, and only two conductors are allowed to work 48 minutes each in the morning. They will not resign their present positions until something is heard from the officers of the new road.

WANT MONEY.

Second M. E. Church Don't Like to Be In Debt.

At a recent meeting of the official board of the Second M. E. church it was decided to raise $130 among the members of the church to pay for the improvements done on the church during the summer. Aside from this expense the church is out of debt.

Will Go to Cleveland.

This evening Jack Tinson, of First avenue, formerly road officer of the street railway company, will leave for Cleveland where he has taken a position on the Cleveland and Western railroad. Michael Fisher, who is now employed on the same road, will leave at the same time, he having spent several days in East End visiting friends.

Dental Parlors.

J. M. Cartwright will open dental parlors in the Stevenson block Monday in the rooms formerly occupied by Dr. J. E. Toot.

COLUMBIANA EIGHTH

In the List of Coal Producing Counties of Ohio For 1899.

Chief Mine Inspector R. M. Hazeltine's annual report just issued shows the year's production of coal in Ohio equaled 14,058,135 tons, an increase of 1,609,313 tons over the preceding year. The ten leading counties in point of production are: Jackson, Perry, Athens, Hocking, Guernsey, Belmont, Tuscarawas, Columbiana, Stark and Jefferson, in the order named.

Of the year's coal production 5,252,598 tons were mined by machinery, a gain over the preceding year of 1,147,474 tons, and the greatest amount in the state's history.

THOMAS TO REMAIN.

The Report That He Would Go to Cleveland Is Denied.

The report circulated yesterday that Freight Agent T. J. Thomas had been promoted to a higher position in the general freight offices at Cleveland was denied by Mr. Thomas this morning. He stated there was no foundation for the report and he had no idea of leaving Liverpool. Mr. Thomas, since he has been in charge of the local office, has made a record for himself and his many friends would be sorry to see him leave.

SEWER OUTLET.

Superintendent Morley Has Charge and It Will Be Completed Today.

The work of putting in the river portion of the sanitary sewer will be completed today. The work is in charge of Superintendent Morley, of the water works department, who has had much experience in laying pipe in the river. As soon as this work is completed the other portion of the trunk line sewer will be commenced.

IN PROBATE COURT.

Three Estates Being Settled in Lisbon This Week.

LISBON, Oct. 19.—[Special]—The will of Isabella B. Culler, late of Knox township, has been admitted to probate and W. H. Hoffman appointed executor, bond $3,000.

Elizabeth D. Crawford, executrix of the estate of James S. Crawford, late of Elkrun township, having resigned W. S. Potts is appointed in her stead; bond $300.

The will of Mary Monti, late of Center township, has been offered for probate.

MISSIONARY MEETINGS.

Great Gatherings Attend the Christian Church Jubilee Sessions at Chicago.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 19.—The jubilee missionary conventions of the Christian church reached their climax when the American Christian missionary society continued its sessions in sections. There was over 12,000 visitors and many from this city and vicinity. Music hall, with a seating capacity of over 5,500, was unable to accommodate the audience and other halls and churches were used for the overflow meetings. The Odeon hall was used for the business sessions with Dr. W. F. Richardson, presiding. Reports were heard from all the committees on different branches of the work.

At the main meeting in Music hall Dr. A. G. Thomas conducted the opening exercises, with C. E. Millard as leader of the singing. The annual address of President W. F. Richardson was on "Our Jubilee and Our Plea." The addresses of F. D. Power, on "Our Cities For Christ," and of A. M. Haggard, on "State Missions to the Front," were followed by general discussions. In celebrating the hour of thanksgiving for reaching the $100,000 the past year for home missions, C. B. Newman made the leading address.

American Missionary Association.

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., Oct. 19.—At the American Missionary association meeting, Rev. A. Haden of Muskegon, Mich., presented a report of mountain missions, showing that under the direction of this department are 58 churches and 1,600 members. Miss M. C. Collins of Standing Rock Indian agency, Fort Yates, N. D., presented a report of her work among the Indians, and Rev. J. R. Nichols of Ohio gave a report of Indian missions. Rev. J. C. Roy of Chicago delivered a memorial address on Rev. M. E. Strisby and Rev. W. H. Ward, editor of The Independent, spoke upon the work of the American Missionary association in Porto Rico. Rev. G. H. Beard of Connecticut presented a report on southern educational work.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Oct. 19.—The seventy-second anniversary of the Pennsylvania Baptist State Mission society ended here. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, C. K. Croser; secretary, W. H. Conard; treasurer, George Scatchard. Rev. Charles F. Winbigler delivered an address on the "Baptist Commonwealth," and the Rev. A. J. Maxwell followed with the subject, "American Baptist Home Mission Society." He said that the year began with a debt of $14,000 and closed with a surplus of over $40,000, due to release of $100,000 from the annuity fund. The anniversary of the Baptist Education society began.

Universalist Church Trustees' Work.

BOSTON, Oct. 19.—The board of trustees of the Universalist general convention considered the progress and aid of the church in Washington. Regarding the Japan mission it was resolved to take no backward step. Important recommendations were also made in relation to the raising of the Twentieth century fund of $200,000.

Priests' Eucharistic League.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—The second day's session of the Priests' Eucharistic League began with the celebration of the pontifical mass in the cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul. FEARS FOR 51ST IOWA.

Transport Senator Likely Encountered a Typhoon—Impress of India's Rough Experience.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 19.—The steamer Empress of India arrived here from Japan, completing the roughest trip of her 43 voyages. The second day out from Yokohama, she encountered a typhoon which smashed all telegraphic communication between the engine room and bridge and destroyed some of the boats. The storm continued unabated all day and night.

Fears was expressed by officers for the transport steamer Senator, carrying home the Fifty-first Iowa regiment. She left Yokohama for San Francisco eight hours before the Empress and having immense upper works would fare badly in a gale.

Henry Frohman Dead.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Henry Frohman, father of Daniel, Charles and Gustave Frohman, the theatrical managers, died at his home in this city of heart failure, aged 72 years. He was in the tobacco business in Ohio and afterward in New York city, but lately had retired from business.

"The doctor said I must not ride. In fact I could not ride."

"This is to certify that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best blood-purifier that I ever used," writes Mrs. M. Hartwick, of Demeter, Oswego, Co., N. Y. "It is about three years since my health began to fail. Last September I gave out entirely with what the physicians pronounced enlargement of the liver. Could not do anything; my back pained me all the time; the doctor said I must not ride, in fact I could not ride nor walk, nor hardly sit still; could not lie on my right side."

I commenced taking the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets'—took them for three months, and still continue the 'Pellets.' I will be glad if I can say anything to help those who are suffering. You can publish this letter if you think best."

If Mrs. Hartwick had begun the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery when her "health began to fail," she would have saved that three years of increasing misery, until she "gave out entirely." For diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition there is no known remedy to compare with "Golden Medical Discovery." It reaches the heart, liver and lungs through the stomach and the blood and its cures are prompt and permanent. Nothing else will give such good results.

There is no alcohol or opium or other narcotic contained in "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" as this remedy. Don't experiment on yourself with substitutes.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

Told on the Streets of East Liverpool as Well as Elsewhere.

Some things you cannot tell too often. Repetition gives them added strength. The same old story is pleasant to hear.

When it brings happiness to home, Brings joy to the afflicted, Tells how burdens can be raised, How the back can be relieved, All the pains and aches removed, Proves how easily it's done. East Liverpool people tell this story. Friends and neighbors talk of it. They talk about their kidneys ills. How they suffered—how the cures came.

What they think of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here's what a citizen says: Mr. G. H. Garner, the well known manufacturer of ice cream, at 165 Jackson street, says:

"My trouble set in with a soreness and stiffness over my whole body, my appetite was poor and I was annoyed a good deal with a bloating at the stomach. There was also a urinary difficulty, and I felt, in fact, generally used up. I tried two or three different remedies, but they did not do me the least good. Having heard Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of, I made up my mind to try them, and I procured a box at W. & W. pharmacy. I did not take over half of it before I was entirely free from any trouble, my appetite good and my old time vigor restored. I recommended them to many of my friends, among them P. J. Green, V. S., and they all speak of them in the highest terms. I can honestly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills in every particular, knowing them to be No. 1 and well worth a trial by anyone."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents per box, or sent by mail on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Filling In the Gap Near Ralston's Crossing.

ENGINE AT LAUGHLIN'S STARTED

Officials Pleased With the Way the Machinery Works--Second M. E. Church Wants Some Money--Conductors Applying For Positions Out of Town.

This morning the street railway company put a large force of men at work filling in at the new trestle, east of Ralston's crossing. At the rate dirt is being dumped over the trestle it is a hard matter for even the company to say when the work will be completed. The dump car will make one round trip every 24 minutes and it cannot carry more than 25 bushels of earth on one trip.

The new culvert is about completed. Strong retaining walls have been constructed at both ends of the culvert. This is quite an improvement over the old culvert. When the work has been completed in its entirety about $1,000 will have been expended.

ENGINE WAS STARTED.

First Test Was Made at Laughlin's New Plant Yesterday.

For the past three weeks steam has been raised every day in the new Laughlin pottery, and yesterday the new engine was started for the first time. Manager Harker and several members of the company were present when the trial was made, and they were highly pleased with the trial. Mr. Harker stated it would be a hard matter to tell how soon the making of ware would be commenced, as it depended entirely upon the machinists.

AFTER OTHER POSITIONS.

Conductors of the Street Railway Company Want on Salem Line.

One of the conductors of the street railway line stated last evening that several who were affected by the recent order of the company have applied for positions as motormen on the new electric line now being built between Salem and Alliance.

There are no conductors on the cars during the evening, and only two conductors are allowed to work 48 minutes each in the morning. They will not resign their present positions until something is heard from the officers of the new road.

WANT MONEY.

Second M. E. Church Don't Like to Be In Debt.

At a recent meeting of the official board of the Second M. E. church it was decided to raise $130 among the members of the church to pay for the improvements done on the church during the summer. Aside from this expense the church is out of debt.

Will Go to Cleveland.

This evening Jack Tinson, of First avenue, formerly road officer of the street railway company, will leave for Cleveland where he has taken a position on the Cleveland and Western railroad. Michael Fisher, who is now employed on the same road, will leave at the same time, he having spent several days in East End visiting friends.

Dental Parlors.

J. M. Cartwright will open dental parlors in the Stevenson block Monday in the rooms formerly occupied by Dr. J. E. Toot.

COLUMBIANA EIGHTH

In the List of Coal Producing Counties of Ohio For 1899.

Chief Mine Inspector R. M. Hazeltine's annual report just issued shows the year's production of coal in Ohio equaled 14,058,185 tons, an increase of 1,609,313 tons over the preceding year. The ten leading counties in point of production are: Jackson, Perry, Athens, Hocking, Guernsey, Belmont, Tuscarawas, Columbiana, Stark and Jefferson, in the order named.

Of the year's coal production 5,252,598 tons were mined by machinery, a gain over the preceding year of 1,147,474 tons, and the greatest amount in the state's history.

THOMAS TO REMAIN.

The Report That He Would Go to Cleveland Is Denied.

The report circulated yesterday that Freight Agent T. J. Thomas had been promoted to a higher position in the general freight offices at Cleveland was denied by Mr. Thomas this morning. He stated there was no foundation for the report and he had no idea of leaving Liverpool. Mr. Thomas, since he has been in charge of the local office, has made a record for himself and his many friends would be sorry to see him leave.

SEWER OUTLET.

Superintendent Morley Has Charge and It Will Be Completed Today.

The work of putting in the river portion of the sanitary sewer will be completed today. The work is in charge of Superintendent Morley, of the water works department, who has had much experience in laying pipe in the river. As soon as this work is completed the other portion of the trunk line sewer will be commenced.

MISSIONARY MEETINGS.

Great Gatherings Attend the Christian Church Jubilee Sessions at Chicago.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 19.—The jubilee missionary conventions of the Christian church reached their climax when the American Christian missionary society continued its sessions in sections. There was over 12,000 visitors and many from this city and vicinity. Music hall, with a seating capacity of over 5,500, was unable to accommodate the audience and other halls and churches were used for the overflow meetings. The Odeon hall was used for the business sessions with Dr. W. F. Richardson, president. Reports were heard from all the committees on different branches of the work.

At the main meeting in Music hall Dr. A. G. Thomas conducted the opening exercises, with C. E. Millard as leader of the singing. The annual address of President W. F. Richardson was on "Our Jubilee and Our Plea." The addresses of F. D. Power, on "Our Cities For Christ," and of A. M. Haggard, on "State Missions to the Front," were followed by general discussions. In celebrating the hour of thanksgiving for reaching the $100,000 the past year for home missions, C. B. Newman made the leading address.

American Missionary Association.

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., Oct. 19.—At the American Missionary association meeting, Rev. A. Haden of Muskegon, Mich., presented a report of mountain missions, showing that under the direction of this department are 58 churches and 1,600 members. Miss M. C. Collins of Standing Rock Indian agency, Fort Yates, N. D., presented a report of her work among the Indians, and Rev. J. R. Nichols of Ohio gave a report of Indian missions. Rev. J. C. Roy of Chicago delivered a memorial address on Rev. M. E. Strisby and Rev. W. H. Ward, editor of The Independent, spoke upon the work of the American Missionary association in Porto Rico. Rev. G. H. Beard of Connecticut presented a report on southern educational work.

Pennsylvania Baptist Meetings.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Oct. 19.—The seventy-second anniversary of the Pennsylvania Baptist State Mission society ended here. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, C. K. Croser; secretary, W. H. Conad; treasurer, George Scatchard. Rev. Charles F. Windigier delivered an address on the "Baptist Commonwealth," and the Rev. A. J. Maxwell followed with the subject, "American Baptist Home Mission Society." He said that the year began with a debt of $14,000 and closed with a surplus of over $40,000, due to release of $100,000 from the annuity fund. The anniversary of the Baptist Education society began.

Universalist Church Trustees' Work.

BOSTON, Oct. 19.—The board of trustees of the Universalist general convention considered the progress and aid of the church in Washington. Regarding the Japan mission it was resolved to take no backward step. Important recommendations were also made in relation to the raising of the Twentieth century fund of $200,000.

Priests' Eucharistic League.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—The second day's session of the Priests' Eucharistic League began with the celebration of the pontifical mass in the cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul. Papal Delegate Martinelli was the celebrant. Archbishop Ryan preached the sermon, formally welcoming the delegates to Philadelphia.

FEARS FOR 51ST IOWA.

Transport Senator Likely Encountered a Typhoon—Impress of India's Rough Experience.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 19.—The steamer Empress of India arrived here from Japan, completing the roughest trip of her 43 voyages. The second day out from Yokohama, she encountered a typhoon which smashed all telegraphic communication between the engine room and bridge and destroyed some of the boats. The storm continued unabated all day and night.

Fears was expressed by officers for the transport steamer Senator, carrying home the Fifty-first Iowa regiment. She left Yokohama for San Francisco eight hours before the Empress and having immense upper works would fare badly in a gale.

Henry Frohman Dead.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Henry Frohman, father of Daniel, Charles and Gustave Frohman, the theatrical managers, died at his home in this city of heart failure, aged 72 years. He was in the tobacco business in Ohio and afterward in New York city, but lately had retired from business.

"The doctor said I must not ride. In fact I could not ride."

Another Factory to Be Built In Chester.

J. E. McDONALD BACK OF IT

Several Oil Men Have Been Looking Over the Chester Field—Plans For the Pottery Being Made—Heck Well Expected In Next Week—News of Chester.

Another industry is to be built in Chester before long if the present plans of J. E. McDonald are carried out. When seen with reference to the above last night Mr. McDonald said: "There are several matters now being considered that will mean much to Chester if there is no hitch in the work that is being done at present. No, I am unable to say of what character the new industry will be, but will have something more to say within the next two weeks."

OIL MEN.

Pittsburg Operators Were Looking Over the Chester Field Yesterday.

It is possible some drilling for oil will be done in Chester by Pittsburg operators before long. Last week H. E. Walters, of Pittsburg, registered at the Thompson House, and in company with J. E. McDonald, has spent much time in and about Chester. Yesterday he was joined by Porter Phipps, another Pittsburg oil man. The men will not say what they intend to do, but it is evidently their intention to sink several wells soon.

Drilling in the Heck well No. 2, started recently, is progressing rapidly and from indications it is probable it will be in within the next two weeks.

MANY APPLES.

Farmers Receiving a Good Price For Windfalls and Picked.

By the last of the week the picking of apples from the Riley orchard will be completed, and it is estimated the crop will yield over 1,000 bushels. This orchard is in Chester and is one of the largest in Hancock county. The entire crop has been sold at $1.25 a bushel. Some of the farmers are receiving $1.50 and $1.75 a barrel for picked apples while the windfalls are bringing $1 and $1.25 a barrel.

MEN ARE SCARCE.

Work on Mill and Railroad Being Held Back as a Result.

There is a scarcity of workmen in Chester and work on the construction of the rolling mill and on the extension of the railroad is being delayed. While those who want men are willing to pay $1.50 and $1.75 a day for labor it is almost impossible to get any men at all.

FIFTY YEARS.

Allison Robinson and Wife Celebrate Their Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Robinson, of near Hookstown, yesterday celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Guests to the number of 200 were present, and a most enjoyable time was spent. Mr. Robinson is an uncle of R. L. McKenty, of Liverpool.

WORK STARTED.

Plans For the Chester Pottery Now Being Made.

Architect Adolph Fritz yesterday commenced work on the plans for the new Chester pottery, but it will be several weeks before they will be completed.

Bids for the excavating will be received by the last of next week.

Charles Hard, of Fairview, has taken a position in Chester.

James Goode will commence the erection of a hotel near Rock Spring soon, and the room he is now occupying will be used by W. C. Johnson as a law office. There is ample room in Chester for an hotel.

John Wesley, of New Cumberland, died at Toronto from injuries received from falling from a high railway trestle. He was well known here.

S. F. Rose has moved into his new residence near the spring. The house vacated by him will be occupied by Peter Noficer.

Clyde Calhoun has commenced the erection of a large barn.

FOOTBALL.

Western University of Pennsylvania Wants a Game and May Be Booked.

The manager of the Western University of Pennsylvania football team has written here asking for a game Nov. 11. The eleven will be booked if satisfactory terms can be arranged. Western University of Pennsylvania has a strong team and should be a good match for the Twin City eleven.

An effort is being made to book Salem for a game next week. Salem has the best team in the county and claims the championship.

NARROW ESCAPE.

This Young Lad Will Keep His Eyes Open Hereafter.

Last evening, at 5:30, a young boy was following a buggy closely with his bike, as he wheeled down Washington street. Just in front of the NEWS REVIEW office he darted from the rear of the vehicle and ran squarely into and under the horses attached to a delivery wagon, with the result that two trusty steeds were astonished and alarmed, one small boy was badly scared and one bike was very seriously crushed and damaged.

CHICKEN FIGHTERS

Are Making Extensive Preparations For Thanksgiving Day.

The chicken cranks of the city on Thanksgiving day will hold a number of fights in this vicinity. Chickens from Wheeling, New Castle, Pittsburg, Allegheny, Beaver Falls, Rochester, Wellsville and this city will be here and it is expected that at least 100 fights will take place. Three pits will be kept going all day and much money will be wagered on the result.

ANOTHER BUSY TIME

Arrests Were Very Numerous Yesterday.

DUNK PICKERING WAS RELEASED

There Was No Evidence to Show That He Had Made Away With a Pocketbook. Landis Will Get a Hearing Soon and More Silverware Has Been Recovered.

Charles Hayes who was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Davidson said he was a British subject and he desired to see the British consul here as he thought the consul would intercede for him. The officers thought the mayor would do as well and Charles was fined $9.60 which he paid. At the hearing he said he did drink beer occasionally and he thought the whisky he had drunk yesterday must have gone to his head as he thought he was on West Market street when he went into the Davidson residence and asked for something to eat. He was very anxious that his name be kept out of the newspapers.

Thomas Lee had a go on Second street yesterday with Jacob Daun and Thomas got badly used up. He was arrested by Officer Woods and was fined $9.60 for his part in the occurrence.

Jacob Daun, who did the hard hitting that knocked out Lee, was arrested by Officer Davidson and was fined $10.60.

Anthony Lavelle, better known as Tony Lavelle, was drunk and viewed the fight. He was arrested by Officer McDonald and was fined $7.60 for his seat at the battle. The trio didn't have any money and they are all in jail.

Dunk Pickering was released last evening after the mayor heard his story and that of Miss Lid Zook, who claimed he had stolen her pocketbook. According to the stories told the parties had been together a great deal that evening and had both been drinking. He claimed that she had given him her pocketbook and there was nothing in it when he got it. The mayor decided there was not enough evidence to hold him.

James Landis will get a hearing some time today. Last evening a man named Mercer returned five knives and five forks to Officer White, and said they had been sold to him by Landis. Mrs. Willis Nichols, who had her goods stored in the Patterson foundry, said there was missing two child's sets, three knives, three forks and 12 spoons. None of the stuff at the mayor's office belonged to her except some of the dress trimming.

The case of Harry Jackson, who fell over the hill at the flint mill Monday evening, was reported to the township trustees and they decided to send him to Pittsburgh where he belongs. This morning Jackson was not able to walk, and it was decided to notify the infirm directors of his condition and they will care for him until he is able to be moved.

A LOST GIRL.

A Two-Year-Old Youngster of Sunnyside Causes Some Excitement.

Nora Ward, a two year old child whose parents live in Sunnyside, yesterday morning about 11 o'clock wandered away from home and her parents started out to find her, but they didn't get the child until 1 o'clock. She had wandered as far as the Diamond and here Miss Anna Thompson found her running around with a little red cart and as happy as you please. Miss Thompson took the child to city hall where she remained very contentedly until her parents came after her. The police desire that all persons who have lost children notify the city hall and fire department and in this way they may be saved much anxiety. All children that are found should be taken to one of the two places.

TRADES COUNCIL

Seated a Large Number of New Delegates Last Night.

At the regular meeting of Trades council last night there was a large attendance and the session was a long one.

A large number of delegates were received. Following is a list of delegates seated:

Carpenters and joiners union, No. 328, W. A. Ross, A. P. Cope.

Kilnmen, No. 9, William Schepp.

Jiggermen, No. 12, William Anderson.

Teamsters, No. 1954, Howard Moon. No. 4, Robert Salisbury.

Federal Labor, No. 6875, Talbert McCain, Frank T. Hale, Frank T. Patterson.

Plumbers, No. 140, Harvey Kemper, Benjamin Davidson.

Teamsters' local reported that their differences with the employers had been adjusted and their scale calling for $1.75 per day signed.

The reports of delegates from local unions showed the locals to be prosperous.

CANONSBURG POTTERY.

A Local Architect Says He Is Now Drawing the Plans For It.

A local architect says he was engaged this week to draw the plans for the new pottery at Canonsburg. It will be a five kiln plant, 300 by 330 feet, somewhat similar to the plant at Wellsville. The buildings will be one and two stories.

Secured Their Property.

In the court of Justice Rose this morning the National Cash Register company, of Dayton, were given possession of a register now in the possession of William Mushenheimer, of East End.

Marriage Licenses.

LISBON, Oct. 19.—[Special]—The following marriage licenses have been issued: Jacob Zeller and Pearl Zurbrug, both of Knox township; Carl M. Fink and Pearl Newhouse, Lisbon.

Wyman Improving.

The many friends of John W. Wyman will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from the injuries he sustained recently. He will be able to be out within a few days.

May Change a Date.

Now that court has adjourned it is probable the case against Mr. and Mrs. William Temple in mayor's court will be set for an earlier date than next Thursday.

Left Property to the Church.

LISBON, Oct. 19.—[Special]—St. George's Catholic church has fallen heir to a fine piece of property for a parsonage by the death of Mrs. Mary Monti.

A New Case.

A new case of scarlet fever was reported to the health authorities. The patient is in the home of a family named Wynn, Jackson square.

Melt In Your Mouth.

The choice home made candies and confections to be had at Ed Hassey's.

Chart of reserved seats for high school lecture course opens at Reed's drug store Friday at 4 o'clock. Tickets at same place.

BREAKS OUT OF THE INFIRMARY

By Removing the Bolts and Bars From His Cell and Is Now on His Way to This City—Officers Are After Him and Hope to Recapture Him Easily.

LISBON, Oct. 19.—[Special]—Joe Bratt, of East Liverpool, who was adjudged insane by Judge Boone last week, escaped from a cell at the infirmary last night by removing some bolts and bars. He is supposed to have made tracks for Liverpool and officers are after him and hope to recapture him easily.

THE SALOON INDICTMENTS.

Lisbon Paper Says East Liverpool Men May Be In the Next Bunch.

Speaking of the 60 bills returned by the last grand jury against saloonkeepers, the Buckeye State says:

"East Liverpool seems to have escaped unusually well, there having been, so far as heard from, no indictments returned against liquor dealers in that city. The end has not yet been reached, however, and there may be a number of indictments in the large number yet to be heard from."

UMBRELLAS.

They Were Left on a Porch and Now Are Among the Missing.

A number of young men and their best girls a few evenings ago attended a party on Sixth street and as it was raining they took umbrellas along. The umbrellas were left on the porch and when the young men were ready to go home they discovered that someone had taken the whole bunch. The same evening several umbrellas were stolen from a party on Calcutta road.

A Comparison.

A poll of the Second precinct of the Third ward in East Liverpool shows 317 Republicans, 48 Democrats and 14 Prohibitionists, with nine doubtful. Three years ago the precinct voted 228 for McKinley, 100 for Bryan; in 1897, 141 for Bushnell and thirty-eight for Chapman. A corresponding increase throughout the county would make the vote for Nash practically unanimous.—Buckeye State.

New Buildings.

Irondale's business men will erect new business blocks on the sites of those recently burned down. It is expected that the new buildings will be better and larger than the old.—Buckeye State.

Football Game.

Saturday afternoon a football game will be played at Columbian park between the Diamond and Tiger teams of this city.

Granted a Pension.

James Conkle, of this place, has been granted an increase of pension from $8 to $10 a month.

Patients Well.

The quarantine was lifted from the home of Fred Trumbull this morning.

The Pension Board.

LISBON, Oct. 19.—[Special]—The pension board is in session here today.

—This morning Charles Heinman, John Brannon and Howard Burton left for Beaver where they will be employed by the Ohio Valley Gas company on their new pipe line.

HOW'S SELF SACRIFICE.

Young Millionaire Gives His Wealth to the Poor.

James Eads How is a grandson of the famous engineer who built the Mississippi river jetties and bridges. His father was president of the Wabash railroad. His own personal fortune amounts to about $1,000,000. He is a graduate of Harvard and was a famous athlete during his college days. Now he has renounced his fortune, is earning his living as a day laborer and announces that he will spend his life in promoting the interests of a new monastic order, to be called the Brotherhood of Daily Life.

Mr. How started his work by walking into the office of the mayor of St. Louis and handing him a check for every cent he possessed, with the request that he get the check cashed and spend the money for the benefit of the poor. The mayor thought him insane and refused to take the money. Now he is in New York, walking about the streets with a tin bucket, looking for work. His new order, the Brotherhood of Daily Life, is to have no connection with any of the churches, though it will not be antagonistic to them. He hopes that the members of the brotherhood will in time be called upon to do work for all the denominations. He refuses to spend any of his fortune, because he says he did not earn it and therefore has no moral right to it. He has secured many members for his new brotherhood in New York.

Missing Time.

BRATT ESCAPES AGAIN

After Being Formally Adjudged Insane He

BREAKS OUT OF THE INFIRMARY

By Removing the Bolts and Bars From His Cell and Is Now on His Way to This City—Officers Are After Him and Hope to Recapture Him Easily.

LISBON, Oct. 19.—[Special]—Joe Bratt, of East Liverpool, who was adjudged insane by Judge Boone last week, escaped from a cell at the infirmary last night by removing some bolts and bars. He is supposed to have made tracks for Liverpool and officers are after him and hope to recapture him easily.

THE SALOON INDICTMENTS.

Lisbon Paper Says East Liverpool Men May Be In the Next Bunch.

Speaking of the 60 bills returned by the last grand jury against saloonkeepers, the Buckeye State says:

"East Liverpool seems to have escaped unusually well, there having been, so far as heard from, no indictments returned against liquor dealers in that city. The end has not yet been reached, however, and there may be a number of indictments in the large number yet to be heard from."

UMBRELLAS.

They Were Left on a Porch and Now Are Among the Missing.

A number of young men and their best girls a few evenings ago attended a party on Sixth street and as it was raining they took umbrellas along. The umbrellas were left on the porch and when the young men were ready to go home they discovered that someone had taken the whole bunch. The same evening several umbrellas were stolen from a party on Calcutta road.

A Comparison.

A poll of the Second precinct of the Third ward in East Liverpool shows 317 Republicans, 48 Democrats and 14 Prohibitionists, with nine doubtful. Three years ago the precinct voted 228 for McKinley, 100 for Bryan; in 1897, 141 for Bushnell and thirty-eight for Chapman. A corresponding increase throughout the county would make the vote for Nash practically unanimous.—Buckeye State.

New Buildings.

Irondale's business men will erect new business blocks on the sites of those recently burned down. It is expected that the new buildings will be better and larger than the old.—Buckeye State.

Football Game.

Saturday afternoon a football game will be played at Columbian park between the Diamond and Tiger teams of this city.

HOW'S SELF SACRIFICE.

Young Millionaire Gives His Wealth to the Poor.

James Eads How is a grandson of the famous engineer who built the Mississippi river jetties and bridges. His father was president of the Wabash railroad. His own personal fortune amounts to about $1,000,000. He is a graduate of Harvard and was a famous athlete during his college days. Now he has renounced his fortune, is earning his living as a day laborer and announces that he will spend his life in promoting the interests of a new monastic order, to be called the Brotherhood of Daily Life.

Mr. How started his work by walking into the office of the mayor of St. Louis and handing him a check for every cent he possessed, with the request that he get the check cashed and spend the money for the benefit of the poor. The mayor thought him insane and refused to take the money. Now he is in New York, walking about the streets with a tin bucket, looking for work. His new order, the Brotherhood of Daily Life, is to have no connection with any of the churches, though it will not be antagonistic to them. He hopes that the members of the brotherhood will in time be called upon to do work for all the denominations. He refuses to spend any of his fortune, because he says he did not earn it and therefore has no moral right to it. He has secured many members for his new brotherhood in New York.

Missing Time.

What do people do with their surplus time? They used to weave the cloth their garments were made of and make them by hand. They now get them ready made at the stores. It takes less time to do every act of drudgery than it used to take. What becomes of the surplus time? If we have gained an hour over our ancestors, what becomes of it?—Atchison Globe.

REVOLTING.

McLean's Enquirer "Personal" Column.

IMMORAL AND DANGEROUS

Free Advertising For All That Is Debauching Is McLean's Policy.

RUINED LIVES, BLASTED HOMES.

Leading Religious Editors Condemn It as Utterly Vicious.

MR. McLEAN RESPONSIBLE FOR IT

Is a Man Who Will Prostitute His Newspaper to Such Debasement as Entitled to Public Respect, Much Less the Highest Honor in the Gift of the People of Ohio?

The Cincinnati Enquirer circulates throughout the state of Ohio. A newspaper is a public institution, and is therefore open to condemnation for its failure to uphold high moral ideals.

No war is waged against The Enquirer's political teachings. It has the right to advocate its political ideas without interference, but where there is a serious infraction of morals it becomes a duty to condemn its corrupting influence.

The debasing feature of The Enquirer is its personal column. The personal column is a black spot on the morals of Ohio. There is no necessity of turning back and searching through the columns of past editions. Any issue will convict it. The personal column carries at its head this striking notice:

"Free Advertising—No Charge."

The inducement held out to the public to patronize this column is FREE ADVERTISEMENTS. Three lines of any character can be inserted free. Clandestine correspondents are invited; flirtations of a dangerous character are encouraged; assignments are brazenly arranged; suggestive advertisements of a debauching character appear daily. Attention is directed to the following advertisements, which, for convenience, are divided into two kinds.

First—Correspondents Solicited.

The following are taken from the issues of Sept. 7, 1899:

"Gentlemen correspondents wanted. Box 142, _____, Ohio."

"Gentlemen correspondents wanted by two young ladies. Address Box 330 and 310, _____, Ohio."

"Gentlemen correspondents wanted. Box 80, _____, Ohio."

Do the parents of the young women who thus seek gentlemen correspondents approve of this method of finding them? They may be in entire ignorance of their act. The towns referred to are small, and only an occasional copy of The Enquirer finds its way into these communities. The young people, knowing this secret avenue of procuring correspondents, rent a box in the postoffice, put an ad. in The Enquirer, and avail themselves of a clandestine correspondence. The correspondents are mainly among the girls of rural communities. Some designing fellow takes advantage of the opportunity, answers the advertisement, and, unknown to the girl's parents, a correspondence is carried on. The unknown knave finally makes a proposition to the young girls to visit the city, and the quiet country girl, overcome by the rosy pictures of city life, flees from her home and is ruined, and the blighted life of the fair young girl joins the sad procession of those who are the submerged tenth in a great city.

Second—Assignations Arranged.

The old and young make use of The Enquirer as a medium for immoral purposes. The following advertisements are taken from the issue of Sept. 13, 1899:

"Indianapolis, middle-aged gentleman, who met lady on Pennsylvania avenue and afterward walked a few squares with her, let her know why he failed to keep the appointment for Monday night; will be at Pennsylvania and Ohio avenue, if possible, same time Monday; if not write to C. Y. A., Enquirer."

The following advertisements are taken from the issue of Sept. 10, 1899: "Anna, will see you at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Pumpkin Roller."

"Red Hat, was at appointed place

Wednesday evening; didn't see you; make another date and bring friend. W. F. H., Box _____, City."

The following is from the issue of Sept. 13, 1899:

"Old Darling, Wednesday night at the same old place. Old Rye."

"Black-eyed Susan, arrange for a place of meeting. Liverpool."

"Ned J., be at the same old place. Maud."

The Sunday edition of The Enquirer is the grand carnival of immorality. It is the red letter day of lust. The Sunday edition of the Cincinnati Enquirer for Aug. 13, 1899 contains 204 personal advertisements. The following are selected from the columns of that issue:

"A widow of 30, tall, of prepossessing appearance and of good repute, would like to meet a middle-aged gentleman of good financial and social standing. Address E. M., Box _____, Dayton, O."

"A gentleman of 35, with means, would like to correspond with a tall, stout lady weighing about 200 pounds, with domestic tastes, with a view to marriage. Address — Box, Pittsburgh, Pa."

"A talented and attractive young miss asks the financial aid of some generous soul, who will give her a helping hand in pursuit of the dramatic art. Security given. Y., Enquirer."

"A nice little widow, with means, would like the acquaintance of a jolly bachelor; object amusement. Address X., Enquirer Office."

"Gentleman of means, middle aged, nice habits, kind and liberal, desires the acquaintance of a nice and pretty young lady, 18 to 22 years of age. One employed in an office or store preferred. Will assist the right party. Please give postoffice address. Address S—, Enquirer Office."

It Has Blasted Homes.

The personal column of The Enquirer has blasted happy homes, ruined and debased young women, corrupted and depraved young men; the courts have been the beneficiary of its victims through estrangements and divorces. Archbishop Elder delivered a sermon in the cathedral in Cincinnati, 1883, in which he condemned most bitterly the course of this newspaper. "Every day it is filled with reading matter that is filthy, nasty, obscene and abominable. The amount of injury that paper is doing right in our midst is incalculable."

At the county federation of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Franklin county, at its meeting Sept. 16, in Columbus, O., Mrs. Mary W. Cassell, the chairman of the committee on resolutions, reported the following, which was adopted:

Whereas, The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, as an advocate of purity in literature and art, have for years recognized and deplored the immoral tendency of the personal column in the Cincinnati Enquirer, as an agency in debauching young men and women of our state and a potent influence in increasing the business of the divorce court; therefore be it

Resolved, That we improve this opportunity, when the Cincinnati Enquirer is brought prominently before the nation by the candidacy of its owner for governor of our state, to protest against the continuance of this pernicious literature; and be it further

Resolved, To request the management of the Cincinnati Enquirer to strike from their columns the brazen advertisements of the brothel and house of assignation.

What Religious Editors Say.

The following is the personal opinion of the Rev. Dr. David H. Moore, D. D., editor of the Western Christian Advocate, Cincinnati, O.:

"The most disgraceful and lamentable thing in journalism in Cincinnati is the Enquirer's personal columns. The paper itself, as a newspaper, is almost indispensable, and yet every number is injected with the virus of sensuality."

The following is the opinion of the Rev. George W. Lasher, D. D., editor of the Journal and Messenger, Cincinnati, O.:

"I regard the personal columns of the Cincinnati Enquirer as one of the most potent agencies for the debauching and ruin of our young people. Its wide circulation enlarges its power for evil, and the character of the communications found in that column makes it certain that those who patronize it are either unclean when they begin, or become unclean before they cease its use. In my judgment it ought to be suppressed."

The following is the personal opinion of Rev. H. Max Lentz, editor of the Lutheran World, Cincinnati, O.:

"The Enquirer is a paper of such enterprise that it is a matter of great regret to all friends of moral order to see it continue the personal column from day to day, which is a rank offense against sound morals and pure living. We would be glad to see such united and hearty action taken against this great evil that it could be suppressed and the paper made fit for decent homes, as it can never be with that disgraceful feature for which there is not a sound excuse in pure morals, or even in decent policy. Let the personal column be suppressed, even if it is necessary to quit the paper."

Ought to Be Suppressed.

The following is the personal opinion of Rev. John H. Ely, editor of the Church Chronicle, Cincinnati, O.:

"The personal column of the Cincinnati Enquirer is a shame to the community and a blot on the character of the man who is responsible for it. It is an abuse of the right to print a paper. If there were any legal way to suppress it, it should be suppressed."

The politics of the editor of the Enquirer may be nearer right than my own. In making this statement I distinctly wish to recognize his freedom to both his political views and ambitions, but it is a pity that a possible governor of Ohio should be responsible for such a thing as the "personal column" of the Cincinnati Enquirer."

The following is the personal opinion of Rev. S. P. Spreng, editor of the Evansville Messenger, Cleveland, O.:

"I consider the so-called personal column in the Cincinnati Enquirer a most dangerous and polluting feature, and one which should be promptly suppressed by the strong arm of the law, if that can be done. Surely our laws against obscene literature would apply to that column, full as it is of the abomination of iniquity itself. The safety and virtue of our young women and young men must not be allowed to be menaced and destroyed by such open wantonness, such flaunting of vice in our very faces."

The following is the personal opinion of the Rev. G. M. Matthews, D. D., associate editor of the Religious Telescope, Dayton, O.:

"I do not hesitate to say that the 'personal column' in the Cincinnati Enquirer is a shame to the community and a blot upon decent society. Its continuance will corrupt and ruin many more young people and add to the long list already debauched and disgraced. Let every legitimate means be used at once for the suppression of this vicious piece of literature."

Blot on Decent Society.

The following is the personal opinion of Hon. F. L. Rowe, manager of the Christian Leader, Cincinnati, O.:

"The personal column of the Cincinnati Enquirer is of such a revolting character that I would not under any circumstances permit the paper in my home, or any place where the pure and innocent could be defiled by its perusal. The pure moral sentiment of our citizens ought to cry aloud, with one voice, against this great stain on our home reading."

What do the fathers and mothers say of this bold and defiant newspaper, that cheerfully opens an avenue to debauch and degrade boys and girls? What do the Christian people of this state say of a man who glories in the fact that the columns of his newspaper is the medium of liasons and assignations? What do the teachers of the public schools of Ohio say concerning a newspaper that makes the pathway for immorality easy for the youth to travel? What do the clergymen of Ohio say concerning a newspaper that wrecks homes and blasts the lives of young men and women?

And what would they think of its owner, the man responsible for this personal column, who could stop it any day if he would, as governor of Ohio?

NEW JERSEY TRUST LAW.

A New York Lawyer Defended It Before the Industrial Commission. Other Witnesses.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—There were six witnesses before the industrial commission, the first of the list being Mr. James B. Dill, a New York attorney, who was presented as an expert on the corporation laws of New Jersey. The law in his opinion were not only just and fair in their requirements, both to the corporations and the public, but they provided heavy penalties for their violation. But, while all this was true, Mr. Dill said he feared that the law had been more honored in the breach than in the observance. He also thought that many of the corporations were organized at much too high a figure.

Mr. Dill gave several reasons for New Jersey's popularity with the corporations as an organizing state. The state has a financial surplus, rendering it improbable that the corporations will be drawn upon in case of a squeeze to make up a deficit, the corporation laws have practically remained unchanged for the past 30 years, and the taxes in New Jersey are fixed and immovable. He thought the time would come when corporations would be controlled by a national law.

The other five witnesses dealt with the practical operation of the New Jersey laws. Four of them agreed to supply lists of the companies represented by them, the number aggregating about 1,450, with an aggregate capital of about $1,800,000,000.

Dennis B. Ryan, an attorney of Jersey City, testified that he was in the habit of allowing his name to be used as New Jersey agent by corporations of that state, often terminating the connection after a day's service. He had within the past year or two thus represented about 75 companies.

REVOLTING.

McLean's Enquirer "Personal" Column.

IMMORAL AND DANGEROUS

Free Advertising For All That Is Debauching Is McLean's Policy.

RUINED LIVES, BLASTED HOMES.

Leading Religious Editors Condemn It as Utterly Vicious.

MR. McLEAN RESPONSIBLE FOR IT

Is a Man Who Will Prostitute His Newspaper to Such Debasement Uses Entitled to Public Respect, Much Less the Highest Honor in the Gift of the People of Ohio?

The Cincinnati Enquirer circulates throughout the state of Ohio. A newspaper is a public institution, and is therefore open to condemnation for its failure to uphold high moral ideals.

No war is waged against The Enquirer's political teachings. It has the right to advocate its political ideas without interference, but where there is a serious infraction of morals it becomes a duty to condemn its corrupting influence.

The debasing feature of The Enquirer is its personal column. The personal column is a black spot on the morals of Ohio. There is no necessity of turning back and searching through the columns of past editions. Any issue will convict it. The personal column carries at its head this striking notice:

"Free Advertising—No Charge."

The inducement held out to the public to patronize this column is FREE ADVERTISEMENTS. Three lines of any character can be inserted free. Clandestine correspondents are invited; flirtations of a dangerous character are encouraged; assignations are brazenly arranged; suggestive advertisements of a debauching character appear daily. Attention is directed to the following advertisements, which, for convenience, are divided into two kinds.

First—Correspondents Solicited.

The following are taken from the issues of Sept. 7, 1899:

"Gentleman correspondents wanted. Box 142, ———, Ohio."

"Gentlemen correspondents wanted by two young ladies. Address Box 330 and 310, ———, Ohio."

"Gentlemen correspondents wanted. Box 80, ———, Ohio."

Do the parents of the young women who thus seek gentlemen correspondents approve of this method of finding them? They may be in entire ignorance of their act. The towns referred to are small, and only an occasional copy of The Enquirer finds its way into these communities. The young people, knowing this secret avenue of procuring correspondents, rent a box in the postoffice, put an ad. in The Enquirer, and avail themselves of a clandestine correspondence. The correspondents are mainly among the girls of rural communities. Some designing fellow takes advantage of the opportunity, answers the advertisement, and, unknown to the girl's parents, a correspondence is carried on. The unknown knave finally makes a proposition to the young girls to visit the city, and the quiet country girl, overcome by the rosy pictures of city life, flees from her home and is ruined, and the blighted life of the fair young girl joins the sad procession of those who are the submerged tenth in a great city.

Second—Assignations Arranged.

The old and young make use of The Enquirer as a medium for immoral purposes. The following advertisements are taken from the issue of Sept. 13, 1899:

"Indianapolis, middle-aged gentleman, who met lady on Pennsylvania avenue and afterward walked a few squares with her, let her know why he failed to keep the appointment for Monday night; will be at Pennsylvania and Ohio avenue, if possible, same time Monday; if not write to C. Y. A., Enquirer."

The following advertisements are taken from the issue of Sept. 10, 1899: "Anna, will see you at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Pumpkin Roller."

"Red Hat, was at appointed place

Wednesday evening; didn't see you; make another date and bring friend. W. F. H., Box ———, City."

The following is from the issue of Sept. 13, 1899:

"Old Darling, Wednesday night at the same old place. Old Rye."

"Black-eyed Susan, arrange for a place of meeting. Liverpool."

"Ned J., be at the same old place. Maud."

The Sunday edition of The Enquirer is the grand carnival of immorality. It is the red letter day of lust. The Sunday edition of the Cincinnati Enquirer for Aug. 13, 1899 contains 204 personal advertisements. The following are selected from the columns of that issue:

"A widow of 30, tall, of prepossessing appearance and of good repute, would like to meet a middle-aged gentleman of good financial and social standing. Address E. M., Box ———, Dayton, O."

"A gentleman of 35, with means, would like to correspond with a tall, stout lady weighing about 200 pounds, with domestic tastes, with a view to marriage. Address ——— Box, Pittsburgh, Pa."

"A talented and attractive young miss asks the financial aid of some generous soul, who will give her a helping hand in pursuit of the dramatic art. Security given. Y., Enquirer."

"A nice little widow, with means, would like the acquaintance of a jolly bachelor; object amusement. Address X., Enquirer Office."

"Gentleman of means, middle aged, nice habits, kind and liberal, desires the acquaintance of a nice and pretty young lady, 18 to 22 years of age. One employed in an office or store preferred. Will assist the right party. Please give postoffice address. Address S——, Enquirer Office."

It Has Blasted Homes.

The personal column of The Enquirer has blasted happy homes, ruined and debased young women, corrupted and depraved young men; the courts have been the beneficiary of its victims through estrangements and divorces. Archbishop Elder delivered a sermon in the cathedral in Cincinnati, 1883, in which he condemned most bitterly the course of this newspaper. "Every day it is filled with reading matter that is filthy, nasty, obscene and abominable. The amount of injury that paper is doing right in our midst is incalculable."

At the county federation of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Franklin county, at its meeting Sept. 16, in Columbus, O., Mrs. Mary W. Cassell, the chairman of the committee on resolutions, reported the following, which was adopted:

Whereas, The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, as an advocate of purity in literature and art, have for years recognized and deplored the immoral tendency of the personal column in the Cincinnati Enquirer, as an agency in debauching young men and women of our state and a potent influence in increasing the business of the divorce court; therefore be it

Resolved, That we improve this opportunity, when the Cincinnati Enquirer is brought prominently before the nation by the candidacy of its owner for governor of our state, to protest against the continuance of this pernicious literature; and be it further

Resolved, To request the management of the Cincinnati Enquirer to strike from their columns the brazen advertisements of the brothel and house of assignation.

What Religious Editors Say.

The following is the personal opinion of the Rev. Dr. David H. Moore, D. D., editor of the Western Christian Advocate, Cincinnati, O.:

"The most disgraceful and lamentable thing in journalism in Cincinnati is the Enquirer's personal columns. The paper itself, as a newspaper, is almost indispensable, and yet every number is injected with the virus of sensuality."

The following is the opinion of the Rev. George W. Lasher, D. D., editor of the Journal and Messenger, Cincinnati, O.:

"I regard the personal columns of the Cincinnati Enquirer as one of the most potent agencies for the debauching and ruin of our young people. Its wide circulation enlarges its power for evil, and the character of the communications found in that column makes it certain that those who patronize it are either unclean when they begin, or become unclean before they cease its use. In my judgment it ought to be suppressed."

The following is the personal opinion of Rev. H. Mar. Lentz, editor of the Lutheran World, Cincinnati, O.:

"The Enquirer is a paper of such enterprise that it is a matter of great regret to all friends of moral order to see it continue the personal column from day to day, which is a rank offense against sound morals and pure living. We would be glad to see such united and hearty action taken against this great evil that it could be suppressed and the paper made fit for decent homes, as it can never be with that disgraceful feature for which there is not a sound excuse in pure morals, or even in decent policy. Let the personal column be suppressed, even if it is necessary to quit the paper."

Ought to Be Suppressed.

The following is the personal opinion of Rev. John H. Ely, editor of the Church Chronicle, Cincinnati, O.:

"The personal column of the Cincinnati Enquirer is a shame to the community and a blot on the character of the man who is responsible for it. It is an abuse of the right to print a paper. If there were any legal way to suppress it, it should be suppressed."

The politics of the editor of the Enquirer may be nearer right than my own. In making this statement I distinctly wish to recognize his freedom to both his political views and ambitions, but it is a pity that a possible governor of Ohio should be responsible for such a thing as the "personal column" of the Cincinnati Enquirer."

The following is the personal opinion of Rev. S. P. Spreng, editor of the Evansville Messenger, Cleveland, O.:

"I consider the so-called personal column in the Cincinnati Enquirer a most dangerous and polluting feature, and one which should be promptly suppressed by the strong arm of the law, if that can be done. Surely our laws against obscene literature would apply to that column, full as it is of the abomination of iniquity itself. The safety and virtue of our young women and young men must not be allowed to be menaced and destroyed by such open wantonness, such flaunting of vice in our very faces."

The following is the personal opinion of the Rev. G. M. Matthews, D. D., associate editor of the Religious Telescope, Dayton, O.:

"I do not hesitate to say that the 'personal column' in the Cincinnati Enquirer is a shame to the community and a blot upon decent society. Its continuance will corrupt and ruin many more young people and add to the long list already debauched and disgraced. Let every legitimate means be used at once for the suppression of this vicious piece of literature."

Blot on Decent Society.

The following is the personal opinion of Hon. F. L. Rowe, manager of the Christian Leader, Cincinnati, O.:

"The personal column of the Cincinnati Enquirer is of such a revolting character that I would not under any circumstances permit the paper in my home, or any place where the pure and innocent could be defiled by its perusal. The pure moral sentiment of our citizens ought to cry aloud, with one voice, against this great stain on our home reading."

What do the fathers and mothers say of this bold and defiant newspaper, that cheerfully opens an avenue to debauch and degrade boys and girls? What do the Christian people of this state say of a man who glories in the fact that the columns of his newspaper is the medium of liasons and assignations? What do the teachers of the public schools of Ohio say concerning a newspaper that makes the pathway for immorality easy for the youth to travel? What do the clergymen of Ohio say concerning a newspaper that wrecks homes and blasts the lives of young men and women?

And what would they think of its owner, the man responsible for this personal column, who could stop it any day if he would, as governor of Ohio?

NEW JERSEY TRUST LAW.

A New York Lawyer Defended It Before the Industrial Commission. Other Witnesses.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—There were six witnesses before the industrial commission, the first of the list being Mr. James B. Dill, a New York attorney, who was presented as an expert on the corporation laws of New Jersey. The law in his opinion were not only just and fair in their requirements, both to the corporations and the public, but they provided heavy penalties for their violation. But, while all this was true, Mr. Dill said he feared that the laws had been more honored in the breach than in the observance. He also thought that many of the corporations were organized at much to high a figure.

Mr. Dill gave several reasons for New Jersey's popularity with the corporations as an organizing state. The state has a financial surplus, rendering it improbable that the corporations will be drawn upon in case of a squeeze to make up a deficit, the corporation laws have practically remained unchanged for the past 30 years, and the taxes in New Jersey are fixed and immovable. He thought the time would come when corporations would be controlled by a national law.

The other five witnesses dealt with the practical operation of the New Jersey laws. Four of them agreed to supply lists of the companies represented by them, the number aggregating about 1,450, with an aggregate capital of about $1,800,000,000.

Dennis B. Ryan, an attorney of Jersey City, testified that he was in the habit of allowing his name to be used as New Jersey agent by corporations of that state, often terminating the connection after a day's service. He had within the past year or two thus represented about 75 companies.

"A gentleman of 35, with means, would like to correspond with a tall, stout lady weighing about 200 pounds, with domestic tastes, with a view to marriage. Address ——— Box, Pittsburgh, Pa."

"A talented and attractive young miss asks the financial aid of some generous soul, who will give her a helping hand in pursuit of the dramatic art. Security given. Y., Enquirer."

"A nice little widow, with means, would like the acquaintance of a jolly bachelor; object amusement. Address X., Enquirer Office."

"Gentleman of means, middle aged, nice habits, kind and liberal, desires the acquaintance of a nice and pretty young lady, 18 to 22 years of age. One employed in an office or store preferred. Will assist the right party. Please give postoffice address. Address S——, Enquirer Office."

It Has Blasted Homes.

The personal column of The Enquirer has blasted happy homes, ruined and debased young women, corrupted and depraved young men; the courts have been the beneficiary of its victims through estrangements and divorces. Archbishop Elder delivered a sermon in the cathedral in Cincinnati, 1883, in which he condemned most bitterly the course of this newspaper. "Every day it is filled with reading matter that is filthy, nasty, obscene and abominable. The amount of injury that paper is doing right in our midst is incalculable."

At the county federation of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Franklin county, at its meeting Sept. 16, in Columbus, O., Mrs. Mary W. Cassell, the chairman of the committee on resolutions, reported the following, which was adopted:

Whereas, The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, as an advocate of purity in literature and art, have for years recognized and deplored the immoral tendency of the personal column in the Cincinnati Enquirer, as an agency in debauching young men and women of our state and a potent influence in increasing the business of the divorce court; therefore be it

Resolved, That we improve this opportunity, when the Cincinnati Enquirer is brought prominently before the nation by the candidacy of its owner for governor of our state, to protest against the continuance of this pernicious literature; and be it further

Resolved, To request the management of the Cincinnati Enquirer to strike from their columns the brazen advertisements of the brothel and house of assignation.

What Religious Editors Say.

The following is the personal opinion of the Rev. Dr. David H. Moore, D. D., editor of the Western Christian Advocate, Cincinnati, O.:

"The most disgraceful and lamentable thing in journalism in Cincinnati is the Enquirer's personal columns. The paper itself, as a newspaper, is almost indispensable, and yet every number is injected with the virus of sensuality."

The following is the opinion of the Rev. George W. Lasher, D. D., editor of the Journal and Messenger, Cincinnati, O.:

"I regard the personal columns of the Cincinnati Enquirer as one of the most potent agencies for the debauching and ruin of our young people. Its wide circulation enlarges its power for evil, and the character of the communications found in that column makes it certain that those who patronize it are either unclean when they begin, or become unclean before they cease its use. In my judgment it ought to be suppressed."

The following is the personal opinion of Rev. H. Max Lentz, editor of the Lutheran World, Cincinnati, O.:

"The Enquirer is a paper of such enterprise that it is a matter of great regret to all friends of moral order to see it continue the personal column from day to day, which is a rank offense against sound morals and pure living. We would be glad to see such united and hearty action taken against this great evil that it could be suppressed and the paper made fit for decent homes, as it can never be with that disgraceful feature for which there is not a sound excuse in pure morals, or even in decent policy. Let the personal column be suppressed, even if it is necessary to quit the paper."

Ought to Be Suppressed.

The following is the personal opinion of Rev. John H. Ely, editor of the Church Chronicle, Cincinnati, O.:

"The personal column of the Cincinnati Enquirer is a shame to the community and a blot on the character of the man who is responsible for it. It is an abuse of the right to print a paper. If there were any legal way to suppress it, it should be suppressed."

The politics of the editor of the Enquirer may be nearer right than my own. In making this statement I distinctly wish to recognize his freedom to both his political views and ambitions, but it is a pity that a possible governor of Ohio should be responsible for such a thing as the "personal column" of the Cincinnati Enquirer."

The following is the personal opinion of Rev. S. P. Spreng, editor of the Evansville Messenger, Cleveland, O.:

"I consider the so-called personal column in the Cincinnati Enquirer a most dangerous and polluting feature, and one which should be promptly suppressed by the strong arm of the law, if that can be done. Surely our laws against obscene literature would apply to that column, full as it is of the abomination of iniquity itself. The safety and virtue of our young women and young men must not be allowed to be menaced and destroyed by such open wantonness, such flaunting of vice in our very faces."

The following is the personal opinion of the Rev. G. M. Matthews, D. D., associate editor of the Religious Telescope, Dayton, O.:

"I do not hesitate to say that the 'personal column' in the Cincinnati Enquirer is a shame to the community and a blot upon decent society. Its continuance will corrupt and ruin many more young people and add to the long list already debauched and disgraced. Let every legitimate means be used at once for the suppression of this vicious piece of literature."

Blot on Decent Society.

The following is the personal opinion of Hon. F. L. Rowe, manager of the Christian Leader, Cincinnati, O.:

"The personal column of the Cincinnati Enquirer is of such a revolting character that I would not under any circumstances permit the paper in my home, or any place where the pure and innocent could be defiled by its perusal. The pure moral sentiment of our citizens ought to cry aloud, with one voice, against this great stain on our home reading."

What do the fathers and mothers say of this bold and defiant newspaper, that cheerfully opens an avenue to debauch and degrade boys and girls? What do the Christian people of this state say of a man who glories in the fact that the columns of his newspaper is the medium of liaisons and assignations? What do the teachers of the public schools of Ohio say concerning a newspaper that makes the pathway for immorality easy for the youth to travel? What do the clergymen of Ohio say concerning a newspaper that wrecks homes and blasts the lives of young men and women?

And what would they think of its owner, the man responsible for this personal column, who could stop it any day if he would, as governor of Ohio?

NEW JERSEY TRUST LAW.

A New York Lawyer Defended It Before the Industrial Commission. Other Witnesses.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—There were six witnesses before the industrial commission, the first of the list being Mr. James B. Dill, a New York attorney, who was presented as an expert on the corporation laws of New Jersey. The law in his opinion were not only just and fair in their requirements, both to the corporations and the public, but they provided heavy penalties for their violation. But, while all this was true, Mr. Dill said he feared that the law had been more honored in the breach than in the observance. He also thought that many of the corporations were organized at much to high a figure.

Mr. Dill gave several reasons for New Jersey's popularity with the corporations as an organizing state. The state has a financial surplus, rendering it improbable that the corporations will be drawn upon in case of a squeeze to make up a deficit, the corporation laws have practically remained unchanged for the past 50 years, and the taxes in New Jersey are fixed and immovable. He thought the time would come when corporations would be controlled by a national law.

The other five witnesses dealt with the practical operation of the New Jersey laws. Four of them agreed to supply lists of the companies represented by them, the number aggregating about 1,450, with an aggregate capital of about $1,800,000,000.

Dennis B. Ryan, an attorney of Jersey City, testified that he was in the habit of allowing his name to be used as New Jersey agent by corporations of that state, often terminating the connection after a day's service. He had within the past year or two thus represented about 75 companies.

ENCOURAGE REBELS.

SIGNIFICANT STATEMENTS OF GENERAL ALEJANDRINO.

"United States Papers" of the Enquirer Stamp Incentive Tagal Rebels to Continue War on Our Boys in Blue—Is This Treason?

A "special cable to the Enquirer" printed on the first page of McLean's newspaper in a recent issue under big headlines, gives an interview with the rebel general, Alejandrino, who went to the American lines under a flag of truce to confer with General Otis about ending the war, as he alleged. The "interview" was obtained by the Enquirer correspondent and is so stated in the introduction. The following words of the rebel general, printed in McLean's newspaper, must awaken the indignation of every patriotic American.

"WE KNOW EVERY MOVE THAT YOU MAKE, AND GET EVERY DAY THE LOCAL AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS. WE KNOW WHAT THE UNITED STATES PAPERS SAY. We believe that a few men whom you call politicians are waging this war, and that the people of the United States will change soon in our favor."

Here is absolute proof of the treason of so-called anti-imperialists. "We know every military move that you make," says the rebel general. How does he know? "We get every day the American newspapers." Are the rebels furnished with copies of the Cincinnati Enquirer? When Alejandrino speaks of "the United States papers," through which he claims to get the sentiment of the United States on the Philippine war, he evidently refers to that portion of the Democratic press which openly supports the enemies of the United States. Mr. McLean's Enquirer is the leading paper of this class.

In addition to newspapers like McLean's Enquirer, Aguinaldo and his people are supplied with all the literature issued by the Atkinson bureau. In no country in the world except the United States would this coterie of incendiaries be allowed to run at large for a single day, much less to send their traitorous stuff to the armed enemies of the nation. The bold words of the rebel general plainly point to a conspiracy as serious and treasonable as that in which Benedict Arnold was the central figure. There can be no doubt that individuals of the Atkinson, Lentz, Altgeld, McLean stripe are in secret communication with the rebels and furnish Aguinaldo with information. They inspired the Aguinaldo rebellion originally by refusing to ratify the treaty with Spain and have continued to encourage Aguinaldo in every way in their power since. Do the loyal people of Ohio propose to endorse such attacks on our boys in blue by electing McLean governor next month?

SEEING IS BELIEVING

PRESIDENT SCHURMAN CONVINCED OF WISDOM OF EXPANSION.

His Views on the Subject Coincide With Those of Admiral Dewey—He Is Confident That the Insurrection Is Losing Strength

Jacob Gould Schurman, president of Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y., who was appointed president of the Philippines commission, opened the eyes of the American people to the evil effects of the demagogic utterances of the anti-expansionists, when he said: "When once the Filipino's confidence has been gained, if dealt with in a frank, straightforward manner, the misunderstanding will be dissipated and the Filipino will realize that the American is his friend."

The anti-expansionist has represented by mouth and pen that the American is the Filipino's foe, that he will enslave him, appoint over him taskmasters with cruel whips, rob him, murder his children, and be a greater tyrant in every respect than the Spaniard had been. This is the hideous picture painted by the anti-expansionists that terrifies the Filipino. Dissipate this misunderstanding, says President Schurman and the Filipino will realize that the American is his friend. Mr. Schurman entered upon his duties as commissioner with a prejudice against expansion. After personally investigating the subject in the Philippines, he returns heartily in favor of retaining the islands.

He is confident that the insurrection is losing strength; that were it not for fear of Aguinaldo and the encouragement of the anti-expansionists at home many of the natives would withdraw from his standard.

Mr. Schurman also stamps as an infamous falsehood the statements that the McKinley administration is not taking good care of the soldier boys, by saying: "The American army is the finest, best fed and equipped force in the world." He is also enthusiastic in his praise of the conduct of the war.

President Schurman's words will have more weight with the American people than the utterances made for political effect by the Democratic anti-expansionists. Mr. Schurman is an able scholar, well versed in constitutional law, a keen and accurate observer of persons and events, and a man of unimpeachable integrity, whose judgment is worthy of frank and full acceptance.

HIS LABOR LEADERS.

McLean Is Suspicious of Them and Works His Enquirer Correspondents.

The following telegram was sent to every correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer:

"Cincinnati, O., Sept. 23.—Please send by mail list of trade organizations in your town, with address of secretary.

(Signed) "ENQUIRER."

The above is significant. The fact is there is trouble at McLean headquarters because of the demands for money by the "secret service leaders" who have undertaken to deliver the labor vote to Mr. McLean. Moreover, Mr. McLean prefers The Enquirer correspondents for work ordinarily assigned to the campaign labor bureau, because he thinks he can trust them more than his labor lieutenants.

McLean is devoting a lot of attention to the officers of certain labor organizations. He does not pretend to argue the issues before the workingmen and agree to abide by their decision. He simply hires a number of so-called labor leaders at a stated sum per day, who are expected by secret work to bring about so-called indorsements of McLean by labor organizations. The character of this "secret work" is well known to the Republican state committee, and is generally understood by the self-respecting laboring men of the state, who comprise the overwhelming majority of organized labor.

McLean wants an up-to-date list of the officers of trades unions for his own peculiar purposes. He has boasted among his rich friends of what money will do with organized labor, and is trying to prove the truth of his boast.

The organized labor of the state, however, understand Mr. McLean and his methods, and present indications are that he will not realize well on his investments in alleged labor leaders.

Judge Nash is speaking from the platform every day and openly discusses every question that enters into the campaign. John R. McLean maintains an absolute silence on his "practical" remedy for the trust evil, as well as on all the other issues. The people of Ohio have a right to know just what McLean proposes to do. They demand that he fully explain where he stands on silver, on trusts, on the renomination of Bryan and on all the other questions of the day. They contrast his silence with the frankness of Judge Nash in a way that is not flattering.

The future of prosperity is now entirely in the hands of the people of Ohio. The Republican party gave it to them by wise legislation. A vote to keep that party in power will be an expression of appreciation of prosperity. A vote for the Democratic party will endanger good times.

Where France Excels.

The people of the United States are fairly well supplied with horseless carriages, chairless bicycles, smokeless powder and wireless telegraphy, says the St. Paul Globe. France, however, rather excels us in bloodless duels.

Wants a Copy of the New Expansion Atlas, Published by Rand McNally, and Now Being Given Away by the NEWS REVIEW---Read What It Is Like---Call and See It.

The NEWS REVIEW has just closed a contract with Rand, McNally & Co., of Chicago, the famous map publishers, for the EXCLUSIVE sale and distribution of the new Rand McNally Expansion Atlas

In this city and vicinity.

This is the revised edition and is right up to date. It contains general maps covering every part of the world, complete and accurate, but its special interest is found in the new maps and descriptive matter pertaining to the

New American Colonies,

The Philippines, Hawaii, Porto Rico, Cuba, Manila and vicinity, including a chronology of all the important events of the Spanish-American war.

The Dewey Souvenir,

A handsomely engraved colored plate, containing excellent portraits of Admirals Dewey and Farragut and the American naval commanders in the Orient, forms the frontispiece of the book. In the center is a beautiful picture in colors of the Battle of Manila Bay, showing the position of each of the American and Spanish vessels and the scenery of the bay, drawn from official descriptions.

Photographs

Of the leading American war ships and portraits of all the presidents are also shown. All the maps are fully and completely indexed so that it is possible in a moment to find any place desired. Population, area and other interesting information is given briefly and accurately up to date.

The map showing how the United States have expanded since the foundation of this government is one of the most valuable features of the book, as it shows

ENCOURAGE REBELS.

SIGNIFICANT STATEMENTS OF GENERAL ALEJANDRINO.

"United States Papers" of the Enquirer Stamp Incentive Tagai Rebels to Continue War on Our Boys in Blue—Is This Treason?

A "special cable to the Enquirer" printed on the first page of McLean's newspaper in a recent issue under big headlines, gives an interview with the rebel general, Alejandrino, who went to the American lines under a flag of truce to confer with General Otis about ending the war, as he alleged. The "interview" was obtained by the Enquirer correspondent and is so stated in the introduction. The following words of the rebel general, printed in McLean's newspaper, must awaken the indignation of every patriotic American.

"WE KNOW EVERY MOVE THAT YOU MAKE, AND GET EVERY DAY THE LOCAL AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS. WE KNOW WHAT THE UNITED STATES PAPERS SAY. We believe that a few men whom you call politicians are waging this war, and that the people of the United States will change soon in our favor."

Here is absolute proof of the treason of so-called anti-imperialists. "We know every military move that you make," says the rebel general. How does he know? "We get every day the American newspapers." Are the rebels furnished with copies of the Cincinnati Enquirer when Alejandrino speaks of "the United States papers," through which he claims to get the sentiment of the United States on the Philippine war, he evidently refers to that portion of the Democratic press which openly supports the enemies of the United States. Mr. McLean's Enquirer is the leading paper of this class.

In addition to newspapers like McLean's Enquirer, Aguinaldo and his people are supplied with all the literature issued by the Atkinson bureau. In no country in the world except the United States would this coterie of incendiaries be allowed to run at large for a single day, much less to send their traitorous stuff to the armed enemies of the nation. The bold words of the rebel general plainly point to a conspiracy as serious and treasonable as that in which Benedict Arnold was the central figure. There can be no doubt that individuals of the Atkinson, Lentz, Altgeld, McLean stripe are in secret communication with the rebels and furnish Aguinaldo with information. They inspired the Aguinaldo rebellion originally by refusing to ratify the treaty with Spain and have continued to encourage Aguinaldo in every way in their power since. Do the loyal people of Ohio propose to endorse such attacks on our boys in blue by electing McLean governor next month?

SEEING IS BELIEVING

PRESIDENT SCHURMAN CONVINCED OF WISDOM OF EXPANSION.

His Views on the Subject Coincide With Those of Admiral Dewey—He Is Confident That the Insurrection Is Losing Strength

Jacob Gould Schurman, president of Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y., who was appointed president of the Philippines commission, opened the eyes of the American people to the evil effects of the demagogic utterances of the anti-expansionists, when he said: "When once the Filipino's confidence has been gained, if dealt with in a frank, straightforward manner, the misunderstanding will be dissipated and the Filipino will realize that the American is his friend."

The anti-expansionist has represented by mouth and pen that the American is the Filipino's foe, that he will enslave him, appoint over him taskmasters with cruel whips, rob him, murder his children, and be a greater tyrant in every respect than the Spaniard had been. This is the hideous picture painted by the anti-expansionists that terrifies the Filipino. Dissipate this misunderstanding, says President Schurman and the Filipino will realize that the American is his friend.

Mr. Schurman entered upon his duties as commissioner with a prejudice against expansion. After personally investigating the subject in the Philippines, he returns heartily in favor of retaining the islands.

He is confident that the insurrection is losing strength; that were it not for fear of Aguinaldo and the encouragement of the anti-expansionists at home many of the natives would withdraw from his standard.

Mr. Schurman also stamps as an infamous falsehood the statements that the McKinley administration is not taking good care of the soldier boys, by saying: "The American army is the finest, best fed and equipped force in the world." He is also enthusiastic in his praise of the conduct of the war.

President Schurman's words will have more weight with the American people than the utterances made for political effect by the Democratic anti-expansionists. Mr. Schurman is an able scholar, well versed in constitutional law, a keen and accurate observer of persons and events, and a man of unimpeachable integrity, whose judgment is worthy of frank and full acceptance.

HIS LABOR LEADERS.

McLean Is Suspicious of Them and Works His Enquirer Correspondents.

The following telegram was sent to every correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer:

"Cincinnati, O., Sept. 23.—Please send by mail list of trade organizations in your town, with address of secretary.

(Signed) "ENQUIRER."

The above is significant. The fact is there is trouble at McLean headquarters because of the demands for money by the "secret service leaders" who have undertaken to deliver the labor vote to Mr. McLean. Moreover, Mr. McLean prefers The Enquirer correspondents for work ordinarily assigned to the campaign labor bureau, because he thinks he can trust them more than his labor lieutenants.

McLean is devoting a lot of attention to the officers of certain labor organizations. He does not pretend to argue the issues before the workingmen and agree to abide by their decision. He simply hires a number of so-called labor leaders at a stated sum per day, who are expected by secret work to bring about so-called indorsements of McLean by labor organizations. The character of this "secret work" is well known to the Republican state committee, and is generally understood by the self-respecting laboring men of the state, who comprise the overwhelming majority of organized labor.

McLean wants an up-to-date list of the officers of trades unions for his own peculiar purposes. He has boasted among his rich friends of what money will do with organized labor, and is trying to prove the truth of his boast.

The organized labor of the state, however, understand Mr. McLean and his methods, and present indications are that he will not realize well on his investments in alleged labor leaders.

Judge Nash is speaking from the platform every day and openly discusses every question that enters into the campaign. John R. McLean maintains an absolute silence on his "practical" remedy for the trust evil, as well as on all the other issues. The people of Ohio have a right to know just what McLean proposes to do. They demand that he fully explain where he stands on silver, on trusts, on the renomination of Bryan and on all the other questions of the day. They contrast his silence with the frankness of Judge Nash in a way that is not flattering.

The future of prosperity is now entirely in the hands of the people of Ohio. The Republican party gave it to them by wise legislation. A vote to keep that party in power will be an expression of appreciation of prosperity. A vote for the Democratic party will endanger good times.

Where France Excels.

The people of the United States are fairly well supplied with horseless carriages, chairless bicycles, smokeless powder and wireless telegraphy, says the St. Paul Globe. France, however, rather excels us in bloodless duels.

Wants a Copy of the New Expansion Atlas, Published by Rand McNally, and Now Being Given Away by the NEWS REVIEW---Read What It Is Like---Call and See It.

The NEWS REVIEW has just closed a contract with Rand, McNally & Co., of Chicago, the famous map publishers, for the EXCLUSIVE sale and distribution of the new Rand McNally Expansion Atlas

In this city and vicinity.

This is the revised edition and is right up to date. It contains general maps covering every part of the world, complete and accurate, but its special interest is found in the new maps and descriptive matter pertaining to the

New American Colonies,

The Philippines, Hawaii, Porto Rico, Cuba, Manila and vicinity, including a chronology of all the important events of the Spanish-American war.

The Dewey Souvenir,

A handsomely engraved colored plate, containing excellent portraits of Admirals Dewey and Farragut and the American naval commanders in the Orient, forms the frontispiece of the book. In the center is a beautiful picture in colors of the Battle of Manila Bay, showing the position of each of the American and Spanish vessels and the scenery of the bay, drawn from official descriptions.

Photographs

Of the leading American war ships and portraits of all the presidents are also shown. All the maps are fully and completely indexed so that it is possible in a moment to find any place desired. Population, area and other interesting information is given briefly and accurately up to date.

The map showing how the United States have expanded since the foundation of this government is one of the most valuable features of the book, as it shows

PRESIDENT REACHED HOME.

McKinley Duncan, son of Andrew K. Duncan, and nephew of President McKinley. The parlors of the Deetrick home were tastefully decorated with orchids and smilax.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—President McKinley and party reached here today, a total of about 5,000 miles having been covered and about 100 speeches having been made by the president.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 19.—President McKinley's special train arrived here about 5 o'clock last evening and the chief executive delivered the last speech of his tour. The train was backed into a side track and the president and his cabinet went on foot to a platform nearby. Apparently everybody in town had crowded into the two streets facing the platform and it was with great difficulty that the president could make himself heard. It was estimated that 20,000 people were packed into the narrow space surrounding the speaker's stand. As the president proceeded they became quieter and enthusiastically cheered every point in his address.

Secretary of the Navy Long was introduced and also spoke.

Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock also spoke briefly.

Having taken dinner aboard the train the president, Mrs. McKinley and Miss Mary Barber were driven to the residence of Dr. Deetrick, in North Phelps street, to attend the wedding of Miss Anna Viola Deetrick to Mr. William

PRESIDENT REACHED HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinley and Party Arrived in Washington Friday From Their Long Trip.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—President McKinley and party reached here today, a total of about 5,000 miles having been covered and about 100 speeches having been made by the president.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 19.—President McKinley's special train arrived here about 5 o'clock last evening and the chief executive delivered the last speech of his tour. The train was backed into a side track and the president and his cabinet went on foot to a platform nearby. Apparently everybody in town had crowded into the two streets facing the platform and it was with great difficulty that the president could make himself heard. It was estimated that 20,000 people were packed into the narrow space surrounding the speaker's stand. As the president proceeded they became quieter and enthusiastically cheered every point in his address.

Secretary of the Navy Long was introduced and also spoke.

Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock also spoke briefly.

Having taken dinner aboard the train the president, Mrs. McKinley and Miss Mary Barber were driven to the residence of Dr. Deetrick, in North Phelps street, to attend the wedding of Miss Anna Viola Deetrick to Mr. William McKinley Duncan, son of Andrew K. Duncan, and nephew of President McKinley. The parlors of the Deetrick home were tastefully decorated with orchids and smilax.

The wedding ceremony was performed after 8 o'clock, Rev. S. R. Frasier officiating. An hour later, the president and cabinet entered carriages and were driven to St. Columbus hall where a public reception was given. President McKinley greeted hundreds of his boyhood friends with a hearty handshake and a kind word. The reception lasted until about 10 o'clock. The party returned to the train, which left for Pittsburg over the Pennsylvania line.

When the train reached Cleveland a reception committee and members of the city council, headed by Mayor J. H. Farley, welcomed the president. Senator Hanna was warmly greeted at the depot by the entire party.

Carriages had been provided for a ten mile drive out Euclid avenue through Gordon and Wade parks.

President and Mrs. McKinley dropped out of the line for a time and called on Mrs. Duncan, the president's sister, whose home is on Oakdale avenue.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

15TH YEAR. NO. 112.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, OCT. 19, 1899.

TWO CENTS

THE REBELS REPULSED

Filipinos Attacked a Patrol, Who Were Reinforced.

THEIR AMMUNITION CAPTURED.

Consuls in Manila Received Book of Correspondence From Filipinos—Spanish Who Tried to Desert Killed By Rebels. Brave Fight of Macabebes.

MANILA, Oct. 19.—A body of 25 Filipinos attacked a railroad patrol of eight men, members of the Seventeenth regiment, at Guiguinto, north of Bulacan, wounding two.

The Americans reinforced the patrol and drove off the enemy, capturing a quantity of ammunition.

The consuls in Manila received from Tarlac, where it was believed Aguinaldo remained, a book containing the correspondence between him and the American commanders and consuls in which, as he contended in his recent appeal for recognition, the Filipinos found the basis for their assertion that the American government recognized their sovereignty and promised them independence.

The book was addressed to the members of the United States congress and contained a long argument by Senor Buencamino, of the so-called cabinet of Aguinaldo and alleged letters written by Wildman, United States consul at Hongkong, to Aguinaldo in June and July of last year. It has made a sensation among the Spaniards here.

Replying to Aguinaldo's request that the Americans would arrange for the shipment of the Spanish prisoners to Hongkong, relieving the Filipinos of the expense of maintaining them, Mr. Wildman wrote:

"Never mind feeding them. A meal every day of rice and water will be a good diet. They have been living too high during the last few years. As the Spaniards want more bloodshed in the Philippines, I trust you will give them a taste of real war. Do not be so tender with them. Handle them as they would treat you."

Mr. Wildman's letter dealt largely with the shipment of arms.

The whole correspondence, however, contained no promises of independence. Senor Buencamino laid stress upon letters from Admiral Dewey and Gen. Anderson requesting passes for American officers and others to visit Filipino territory, and upon a letter from Gen. Anderson asking "you and your people to co-operate with us in military operations against the Spaniards."

Gen. Otis received messages purporting to come from the insurgent general, Pio del Pilar, offering to sell out his army and to deliver Aguinaldo into the hands of the Americans. Although he is not satisfied that this offer is authentic it is not in runs cally imroable. The policy of Gen. Otis is firmly set against buying any surrenders.

Pio del Pilar offered for the sum of $50,000 to refrain from attacking Manila with his army; for the sum of $250,000 he offered to surrender his army after a sham battle, both sides firing into the air, and for the sum of $500,000 he said he would procure the overthrow of the insurrection and the capture of Aguinaldo, Paterno and the other leaders.

In the course of the communication he referred to Aguinaldo in contemptuous terms, indicating that strained relations existed between them.

Reports were being received from the districts occupied by the enemy that the Filipinos believed that Pio del Pilar had an audacious plan to break through the American lines into Manila and seize General Otis and the archbishop. Possibly these rumors were started with an idea of helping him to make a deal with the Americans.

It is unnecessary to say that the Americans would welcome an attack of that sort. There has been much speculation of late regarding the whereabouts of Pio del Pilar. The recent attack at La Loma was credited to his men. It was believed that he was in the vicinity of San Mateo valley with a force of from 1,800 to 3,000 men.

Ten former Spanish soldiers, who were captured by the Filipinos and for a time acted as officers and members of a Filipino artillery regiment located in the vicinity of Santa Rosa, in the Laguna de Bay district, determined to surrender the artillery to the Americans. The plot was discovered by the Filipinos, who killed seven of the conspirators, the other three making their escape to Manila.

It appeared that when the surrender was determined upon the Spaniards delegated one of their number to proceed to Manila and to propose to General Otis to surrender after a prearranged mock battle, about 12 pieces, including Krupp and Nordenfolt rapid-fire guns, well supplied with ammunition from the Lipa powder factory, in exchange for certain sums to be paid the Spaniards, who were to be pardoned for carrying arms against the Americans and to be transported to Spain.

The delegate left Santa Rosa and accompanied by three Filipinos entered the American lines at Calamba. The Filipinos did not proceed, deciding to await his return at a given time. As the delegate was detained in Manila longer than they had expected they grew suspicious and returned to Santa Rosa. The plot was then revealed and the remaining Spaniards were attacked.

The gunboat Napidan, coasting near Santa Rosa, perceived two men on the beach hurriedly embarking in a canoe and pushing out toward them. She took them on board, and they reported that the Filipinos, on discovering the plot to surrender the artillery, had cut the throats of seven of their Spanish companions and that they themselves had barely escaped with their lives.

The three Spaniards were hiding in Manila, fearing Filipino vengeance. General Otis had declined their offer through the delegate to surrender the artillery for money, but he promised to send the three to Spain.

Batson's Macabebe scouts encountered the enemy at San Mateo, near Arayat, and attacked them on the front and flank, driving them one of the trenches and dispersing them completely.

Several Filipinos, including a captain and a lieutenant, were killed. A quantity of arms was captured.

The Macabebes had one man killed.

SOLDIERS' WIFE PROTESTED.

Lady Made a Sensation at Anti-Imperialists' Convention—Cockran Addressed Meeting.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The anti-imperialist meeting at Central Music hall came to a close, Hon. Bourke Cockran of New York delivering an oration. Mr. Cockran based his objection to the policy of the government on the broad ground that one people had no right to force a government upon another.

He discussed the question in a dispassionate manner, claiming that there were many reasons why the United States should hold the islands, but no reason why it should attempt to force upon any people a form of government to which that people objected.

During a speech by Rev. Bigelow, of Cincinnati, a sensation was caused by a stylish dressed woman who arose in the audience and extending her gloved hand toward the American flag which hung suspended over the speaker, exclaimed: "Take down the flag, don't disgrace it any longer." She was hurried from the hall by a friend and as she left the building she refused to give her name, but said she was the sister of one soldier, daughter of another and wife of another—all of them now fighting in the Philippines.

In the resolutions unanimously adopted, the policy of the present national administration is condemned and the immediate cessation of the Philippine war demanded.

Continuing they said in part: "We propose to contribute to the defeat of any person or party that stands for the forcible subjugation of any people."

DEFENSE PUT FORTH BY MERRIAM.

Declared the Abuse of Idaho Strikers Was by State Authorities.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The report of General Merriam upon the Idaho riots was made public here. General Merriam disclaimed all responsibility for the order refusing employment to union men in the mines. He said that this regulation was drawn by the state authorities and his only connection with it was to liberalize certain of its provisions, after which he placed his name at the bottom with the words "examined and approved."

The other point which he made was that the prisoners, of whom at one time there were more than 400, were not properly cared for until he had called the attention of the state authorities to the matter, after which their condition was materially improved.

Princeton Beat Pennsylvania State.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 19.—The Princeton foot ball team defeated Pennsylvania State college 12 to 0.

BRYAN IN OHIO TODAY

Made a Speech at Greenville This Morning

WITH McLEAN AND OTHER LEADERS

An Enthusiastic Escort Accompanied Him Across the River From Covington, Ky. A Reply Made to Anti-Goebel Candidate for Governor.

GREENVILLE, O., Oct. 19.—William J. Bryan arrived here this morning on his speechmaking tour through Ohio, with him were John R. McLean, Democratic candidate for governor, and other Democratic leaders. The party left Dayton early this morning, whence Mr. Bryan had gone last night from Cincinnati, having closed his speechmaking tour in Kentucky at Covington.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 19.—Mr. Bryan was met at the meeting in Covington by Hon. Allen O. Myers and others, representing the Ohio Democratic committee, and afterward escorted to a special train in waiting here for the Ohio tour. Many from Cincinnati had crossed the river to hear Bryan and Goebel, and a great line of escort formed to follow the carriages to this side of the river. Mr. Bryan spoke from a platform in Park Place in Covington, and it is estimated that 20,000 people surrounded it. When he stopped speaking there was a rush for the platform to shake hands. Many were badly crushed in the crowd and it was feared the platform would give way. Mr. Bryan was escorted to Ohio by great crowds with blazing lights along the way, but he declined a public reception and repaired at once to his car, leaving at 11 p. m. for Dayton.

COVINGTON, Ky., Oct. 19.—When the Bryan train reached Covington last night an enormous crowd assembled at the depot and the enthusiasm displayed was as great as that at any point along the route from Bardwell to Covington.

Mr. Bryan's address was largely a repetition of those delivered at various points throughout this state, the chief feature of which was a plea for the regular nominee as a guarantee for success next year and for the return of ex-Senator Blackburn to the United States senate.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 19.—Twenty thousand people greeted William J. Bryan and the candidates on the Democratic state ticket at Churchill Downs yesterday afternoon.

The barbecue was the feature. They spent three hours at the Jockey club grounds, all full of speechmaking, and then resumed their trip to Covington.

A notable part of the program was played by the Cook County Marching club of Chicago, which, 300 strong, came accompanied by five brass bands. Today they will take a trip to the Blue Grass region, touching Frankfort, Lexington and Paris, jumping into the midst of the Ohio campaign on Friday at Cincinnati.

Mr. Bryan began his speech by reading a letter from John Young Brown, which had been handed to him on his arrival in the city.

The letter cited the statements concerning the agreement of Goebel and Stone by which they were to combine their forces for the purpose of securing the organization of the Louisville convention, and asked whether, "after over 300 men were placed in the convention instead of the delegates selected," the convention could give Goebel the nomination of the party. He also asked whether such a contract was not fraudulent.

Gov. Brown further asked whether a chairman had the right to deny an appeal; whether armed police in the convention was not a menace to free government; whether Bryan was in favor of the Goebel election law, and lastly whether Bryan had any plea save that of political expediency to justify submission.

Mr. Bryan said in part on the subject of the letter:

"I want to say that I did not come to sit in judgment on any convention. I did not come to discuss the details of an election law. I come to say, and I say with emphasis, that if there was anything done in that convention that a Democrat does not think ought to have been done, I ask of that Democrat what his remedy is. Is it to elect a Republican governor and Republican officials? The man who tries to correct a Democratic convention by electing a Republican governor assumes responsibility for all that governor does after he has been elected."

GIVEN TO THE JURY.

The Judge's Charge Made in the Ingham and Newitt Case.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—United States District Attorney Beck made the closing argument in the government case against Ellery P. Ingham and Harvey K. Newitt, the lawyers charged with conspiracy and bribery in connection with the Lancaster revenue stamp counterfeiting plot.

Judge McPherson's charge to the jury showed no traces of partiality, the burden of responsibility for the verdict being placed upon the 12 good men and true. One point on which he dwelt at length was the credibility of the witnesses, more especially where the evidence of the secret service operatives was concerned. He said detectives were an absolute necessity, and to reject their testimony because their profession required subterfuge would be wholly unwarranted.

The testimony of criminals is also worthy of belief, he said, where there is sufficient corroboration.

Of the two stories his honor said obviously but one could be true and the jury must decide by the corroboration which to believe. That money had been passed from Kendig to Ingham and Newitt and from them to McManus was conceded. The question was as to what use this money was to be applied.

The case was given to the jury.

HADLEY NOW PRESIDENT OF YALE.

Inaugurated by Fitting Ceremonies—Distinguished Men Present.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 19.—Arthur Twining Hadley, LL. D., was inaugurated as president of Yale university in this city. Among those who attended the ceremony were: The presidents of Harvard, Princeton, Columbia, Cornell, Chicago, Brown, Oberlin and many other universities and colleges; federal officers, distinguished men of science and letters, diplomats and men of business.

The retiring president, Dr. Timothy Dwight, made the opening prayer. The Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Twicell of Hartford, the senior member of the Yale corporation, then formally inducted Dr. Hadley into office and administered the oath, after which President Hadley delivered his inaugural address.

Prof. George P. Fisher, dean of the Yale Theological school, delivered an address of welcome.

The benediction was pronounced by ex-President Dwight.

The new president held a reception at the art school. Yale students paraded at night.

A WARNING TO POSTMASTERS.

Must Not Level Political Assessments During the Campaign.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The postmaster general issued a formal warning to all postmasters against the levy of political assessments and simultaneously the civil service commission called attention to the law governing the subject and of the commission's intention to enforce it.

This general warning is similar to that issued heretofore prior to political campaigns and, it is understood, follows complaints of specific violation of the law received from Ohio and other states where elections are to be held this year.

Forest Fires In West Virginia.

PARSONS, W. Va., Oct. 19.—Immense forest fires, miles in extent, raged in the mountains near here. Millions of feet of lumber were being burned up and other property was in imminent danger. Residents had to fight to keep the fire out of Hendricks, about three miles from here, and it looked as if similar danger would be experienced. Smoke like a dense fog hung over the town.

Three Volunteer Firemen Killed.

KNIGHTSTOWN, Ind., Oct. 19.—Three lives were lost and property worth $100,000 was destroyed in a fire here. The dead are: Truman Rhodes, Chas. Scutter and Fon Davey. The men were members of the volunteer fire department, and were fighting the flames when the front walls fell outward.

Suit Brought Against Marconi.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Lyman C. Larned of Boston has brought suit in the United States circuit court against Guglielmo Marconi to restrain him and his agents from using the system of wireless telegraphy, which Larned claims is an infringement of a patent now controlled by him, and the alleged invention of Amos Emerson Dolbear.

BATTLE LIKELY TODAY

Combined Forces Moving on Ladysmith.

MAFEKING PROBABLY HOLDS OUT.

Rumor of White Flag Being Raised Not Believed—All Well at Kimberley With the British—Thirty Boers Killed Near Mafeking.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—There is still no authentic news from Mafeking, but all reports tend to confirm the belief that Colonel Baden Powell is holding his own, and no credit is given to the vague rumor that a flag of truce had been displayed.

A considerable engagement is anticipated in the vicinity of Ladysmith today. The combined advance of Boers and Free State troops in this direction has been executed with not inconsiderable skill and shows a clear appreciation of the British position. General Sir George Stewart White has 12,000 men and 46 guns available, besides a considerable force of volunteers, to hold Ladysmith, and no anxiety is felt on his account, for the Natal country, where the engagement is expected, is fairly open, and although the work of moving them will be difficult, the guns are likely to do good work.

The country is not favorable for Boer tactics and it will be very difficult for them to avoid the exposure of their flanks to attack by a vigorous and mobile enemy already occupying useful positions, that is, supposing they really mean to fight and not merely to attempt to draw General White farther out with a view of surrounding him.

General White has a large body of excellent cavalry, which will be put to good use.

The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Ladysmith says no newspaper representatives are allowed to proceed from there either to Besters station or Acton Homes, and adds that Gen. Joubert's forces are moving against Glencoe and Besters station on the Henrismith-Lynch line.

According to the same authority some volunteers who had just come into Ladysmith from Besters station and Acton Homes before the despatch was sent, reported that 300 Boers tried ineffectually to cut off small parties of British troops, but the Natal men were too wary to be caught and retired firing.

Two thousand Boers were engaged at Acton Homes and rather fewer at Besters station. It is reported that the enemy there is hemmed in and suffering severely.

The Daily Telegraph, commenting on the foregoing dispatch from its correspondent, says it is difficult to understand the references to Glencoe and Besters station, except on the theory that Commandant General Joubert is dividing his forces.

The Times Lobatsi correspondent telegraphing under date of Oct. 14 says:

"The Boers were around us all day yesterday and broke up the line in several places between Pietsani and Mafeking. They were attacked and defeated by a party of our men from Mafeking. Thirty Boers were killed during the night. Another lot broke up the line a mile north of Lobatsi, cutting the wires. The stationmaster and all of us here set to work and have just restored communication."

"A runner has arrived bringing news of Colonel Baden Powell's success in keeping the enemy at bay."

The Cape Town correspondent of The Times, under date of Tuesday, said:

"All is well at Kimberley, though communication is almost entirely cut. There is no means of learning anything that happens north of the Orange river, unless perhaps by way of Rhodesia and Beira."

Discussed Trade With China.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—Prominent men, who either in official or mercantile life have been actively engaged in the trade between China and the United States, England and other countries, discussed that trade as it is, and as it should be, before the International Commercial congress.

Declared For Pittsburg Faction.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 19.—Judge Simonon decided the Socialist-Labor party contention as to which faction was entitled to a place on the official ballot in favor of the Pittsburg, or Clark, faction.

THE EAST END.

WILL BE SLOW WORK

Filling In the Gap Near Ralston's Crossing.

ENGINE AT LAUGHLIN'S STARTED

Officials Pleased With the Way the Machinery Works--Second M. E. Church Wants Some Money--Conductors Applying For Positions Out of Town.

This morning the street railway company put a large force of men at work filling in at the new trestle, east of Ralston's crossing. At the rate dirt is being dumped over the trestle it is a hard matter for even the company to say when the work will be completed. The dump car will make one round trip every 24 minutes and it cannot carry more than 25 bushels of earth on one trip.

The new culvert is about completed. Strong retaining walls have been constructed at both ends of the culvert. This is quite an improvement over the old culvert. When the work has been completed in its entirety about $1,000 will have been expended.

ENGINE WAS STARTED.

First Test Was Made at Laughlin's New Plant Yesterday.

For the past three weeks steam has been raised every day in the new Laughlin pottery, and yesterday the new engine was started for the first time. Manager Harker and several members of the company were present when the trial was made, and they were highly pleased with the trial. Mr. Harker stated it would be a hard matter to tell how soon the making of ware would be commenced, as it depended entirely upon the machinists.

AFTER OTHER POSITIONS.

Conductors of the Street Railway Company Want on Salem Line.

One of the conductors of the street railway line stated last evening that several who were affected by the recent order of the company have applied for positions as motormen on the new electric line now being built between Salem and Alliance.

There are no conductors on the cars during the evening, and only two conductors are allowed to work 48 minutes each in the morning. They will not resign their present positions until something is heard from the officers of the new road.

WANT MONEY.

Second M. E. Church Don't Like to Be In Debt.

At a recent meeting of the official board of the Second M. E. church it was decided to raise $130 among the members of the church to pay for the improvements done on the church during the summer. Aside from this expense the church is out of debt.

Will Go to Cleveland.

This evening Jack Tinson, of First avenue, formerly road officer of the street railway company, will leave for Cleveland where he has taken a position on the Cleveland and Western railroad. Michael Fisher, who is now employed on the same road, will leave at the same time, he having spent several days in East End visiting friends.

Dental Parlors.

J. M. Cartwright will open dental parlors in the Stevenson block Monday in the rooms formerly occupied by Dr. J. E. Toot.

COLUMBIANA EIGHTH

In the List of Coal Producing Counties of Ohio For 1899.

Chief Mine Inspector R. M. Hazeltine's annual report just issued shows the year's production of coal in Ohio equaled 14,058,185 tons, an increase of 1,609,313 tons over the preceding year. The ten leading counties in point of production are: Jackson, Perry, Athens, Hocking, Guernsey, Belmont, Tuscarawas, Columbiana, Stark and Jefferson, in the order named.

Of the year's coal production 5,252,598 tons were mined by machinery, a gain over the preceding year of 1,147,474 tons, and the greatest amount in the state's history.

THOMAS TO REMAIN.

The Report That He Would Go to Cleveland Is Denied.

The report circulated yesterday that Freight Agent T. J. Thomas had been promoted to a higher position in the general freight offices at Cleveland was denied by Mr. Thomas this morning. He stated there was no foundation for the report and he had no idea of leaving Liverpool. Mr. Thomas, since he has been in charge of the local office, has made a record for himself and his many friends would be sorry to see him leave.

SEWER OUTLET.

Superintendent Morley Has Charge and It Will Be Completed Today.

The work of putting in the river portion of the sanitary sewer will be completed today. The work is in charge of Superintendent Morley, of the water works department, who has had much experience in laying pipe in the river. As soon as this work is completed the other portion of the trunk line sewer will be commenced.

MISSIONARY MEETINGS.

Great Gatherings Attend the Christian Church Jubilee Sessions at Chicago.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 19.—The jubilee missionary conventions of the Christian church reached their climax when the American Christian missionary society continued its sessions in sections. There was over 12,000 visitors and many from this city and vicinity. Music hall, with a seating capacity of over 5,500, was unable to accommodate the audience and other halls and churches were used for the overflow meetings. The Odeon hall was used for the business sessions with Dr. W. F. Richardson, presiding. Reports were heard from all the committees on different branches of the work.

At the main meeting in Music hall Dr. A. G. Thomas conducted the opening exercises, with C. E. Millard as leader of the singing. The annual address of President W. F. Richardson was on "Our Jubilee and Our Plea." The addresses of F. D. Power, on "Our Cities For Christ," and of A. M. Haggard, on "State Missions to the Front," were followed by general discussions. In celebrating the hour of thanksgiving for reaching the $100,000 the past year for home missions, C. B. Newman made the leading address.

American Missionary Association.

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., Oct. 19.—At the American Missionary association meeting, Rev. A. Haden of Muskegon, Mich., presented a report of mountain missions, showing that under the direction of this department are 58 churches and 1,600 members. Miss M. C. Collins of Standing Rock Indian agency, Fort Yates, N. D., presented a report of her work among the Indians, and Rev. J. R. Nichols of Ohio gave a report of Indian missions. Rev. J. C. Roy of Chicago delivered a memorial address on Rev. M. E. Strisby and Rev. W. H. Ward, editor of The Independent, spoke upon the work of the American Missionary association in Porto Rico. Rev. G. H. Beard of Connecticut presented a report on southern educational work.

Pennsylvania Baptist Meetings.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Oct. 19.—The seventy-second anniversary of the Pennsylvania Baptist State Mission society ended here. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, C. K. Croser; secretary, W. H. Conad; treasurer, George Seachard. Rev. Charles F. Winbiger delivered an address on the "Baptist Commonwealth," and the Rev. A. J. Maxwell followed with the subject, "American Baptist Home Mission Society." He said that the year began with a debt of $14,000 and closed with a surplus of over $40,000, due to release of $100,000 from the annuity fund. The anniversary of the Baptist Education society begun.

Universalist Church Trustees' Work.

BOSTON, Oct. 19.—The board of trustees of the Universalist general convention considered the progress and aid of the church in Washington. Regarding the Japan mission it was resolved to take no backward step. Important recommendations were also made in relation to the raising of the Twentieth century fund of $200,000.

Priests' Eucharistic League.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—The second day's session of the Priests' Eucharistic League began with the celebration of the pontifical mass in the cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul. Papal Delegate Martinelli was the celebrant. Archbishop Ryan preached the sermon, formally welcoming the delegates to Philadelphia.

FEARS FOR 51ST IOWA.

Transport Senator Likely Encountered a Typhoon—Impress of India's Rough Experience.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 19.—The steamer Empress of India arrived here from Japan, completing the roughest trip of her 43 voyages. The second day out from Yokohama, she encountered a typhoon which smashed all telegraphic communication between the engine room and bridge and destroyed some of the boats. The storm continued unabated all day and night.

Fears was expressed by officers for the transport steamer Senator, carrying home the Fifty-first Iowa regiment. She left Yokohama for San Francisco eight hours before the Empress and having immense upper works would fare badly in a gale.

Henry Frohman Dead.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Henry Frohman, father of Daniel, Charles and Gustave Frohman, the theatrical managers, died at his home in this city of heart failure, aged 72 years. He was in the tobacco business in Ohio and afterward in New York city, but lately had retired from business.

"The doctor said I must not ride. In fact I could not ride."

"This is to certify that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best blood-purifier that I ever used," writes Mrs. M. Hartrick, of Demster, Oswego, Co., N. Y. "It is about three years since my health began to fail. Last September I gave out entirely with what the physicians pronounced enlargement of the liver. Could not do anything; my back pained me all the time; the doctor said I must not ride, in fact I could not ride nor walk, nor hardly sit still; could not lie on my right side. I commenced taking the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets'—took them for three months, and still continue the 'Pellets.' I will be glad if I can say anything to help those who are suffering. You can publish this letter if you think best."

If Mrs. Hartrick had begun the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery when her "health began to fail," she would have saved that three years of increasing misery, until she "gave out entirely." For diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition there is no known remedy to compare with "Golden Medical Discovery." It reaches the heart, liver and lungs through the stomach and the blood and its cures are prompt and permanent. Nothing else will give such good results.

There is no alcohol or opium or other narcotic contained in "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" as this remedy. Don't experiment on yourself with substitutes.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

Told on the Streets of East Liverpool as Well as Elsewhere.

Some things you cannot tell too often. Repetition gives them added strength. The same old story is pleasant to hear.

When it brings happiness to home, Brings joy to the afflicted, Tells how burdens can be raised, How the back can be relieved, All the pains and aches removed, Proves how easily it's done. East Liverpool people tell this story. Friends and neighbors talk of it. They talk about their kidneys ills. How they suffered—how the cure came.

What they think of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here's what a citizen says: Mr. G. H. Garner, the well known manufacturer of ice cream, at 163 Jackson street, says:

"My trouble set in with a soreness and stiffness over my whole body, my appetite was poor and I was annoyed a good deal with a bloating at the stomach. There was also a urinary difficulty, and I felt, in fact, generally used up. I tried two or three different remedies, but they did not do me the least good. Having heard Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of, I made up my mind to try them, and I procured a box at W. & W. pharmacy. I did not take over half of it before I was entirely free from any trouble, my appetite good and my old time vigor restored. I recommended them to many of my friends, among them P. J. Green, V. S., and they all speak of them in the highest terms. I can honestly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills in every particular, knowing them to be No. 1 and well worth a trial by anyone."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents per box, or sent by mail on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SOUTH SIDE.

HAS SOMETHING NEW

Another Factory to Be Built In Chester.

J. E. McDONALD BACK OF IT

Several Oil Men Have Been Looking Over the Chester Field—Plans For the Pottery Being Made—Heck Well Expected In Next Week—News of Chester.

Another industry is to be built in Chester before long if the present plans of J. E. McDonald are carried out. When seen with reference to the above last night Mr. McDonald said: "There are several matters now being considered that will mean much to Chester if there is no hitch, in the work that is being done at present. No, I am unable to say of what character the new industry will be, but will have something more to say within the next two weeks."

OIL MEN.

Pittsburg Operators Were Looking Over the Chester Field Yesterday.

It is possible some drilling for oil will be done in Chester by Pittsburg operators before long. Last week H. E. Walters, of Pittsburg, registered at the Thompson House, and in company with J. E. McDonald, has spent much time in and about Chester. Yesterday he was joined by Porter Phipps, another Pittsburg oil man. The men will not say what they intend to do, but it is evidently their intention to sink several wells soon.

Drilling in the Heck well No. 2, started recently, is progressing rapidly and from indications it is probable it will be in within the next two weeks.

MANY APPLES.

Farmers Receiving a Good Price For Windfalls and Picked.

By the last of the week the picking of apples from the Riley orchard will be completed, and it is estimated the crop will yield over 1,000 bushels. This orchard is in Chester and is one of the largest in Hancock county. The entire crop has been sold at $1.25 a bushel. Some of the farmers are receiving $1.50 and $1.75 a barrel for picked apples while the windfalls are bringing $1 and $1.25 a barrel.

MEN ARE SCARCE.

Work on Mill and Railroad Being Held Back as a Result.

There is a scarcity of workmen in Chester and work on the construction of the rolling mill and on the extension of the railroad is being delayed. While those who want men are willing to pay $1.50 and $1.75 a day for labor it is almost impossible to get any men at all.

FIFTY YEARS.

Allison Robinson and Wife Celebrate Their Golden Wedding.

FOOTBALL.

Western University of Pennsylvania Wants a Game and May Be Booked.

The manager of the Western University of Pennsylvania football team has written here asking for a game Nov. 11. The eleven will be booked if satisfactory terms can be arranged. Western University of Pennsylvania has a strong team and should be a good match for the Twin City eleven.

An effort is being made to book Salem for a game next week. Salem has the best team in the county and claims the championship.

NARROW ESCAPE.

This Young Lad Will Keep His Eyes Open Hereafter.

Last evening, at 5:30, a young boy was following a buggy closely with his bike, as he wheeled down Washington street. Just in front of the News Review office he darted from the rear of the vehicle and ran squarely into and under the horses attached to a delivery wagon, with the result that two trusty steeds were astonished and alarmed, one small boy was badly scared and one bike was very seriously crushed and damaged.

ANOTHER BUSY TIME

Arrests Were Very Numerous Yesterday.

DUNK PICKERING WAS RELEASED

There Was No Evidence to Show That He Had Made Away With a Pocketbook. Landis Will Get a Hearing Soon and More Silverware Has Been Recovered.

Charles Hayes who was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Davidson said he was a British subject and he desired to see the British consul here as he thought the consul would intercede for him. The officers thought the mayor would do as well and Charles was fined $9.60 which he paid. At the hearing he said he did drink beer occasionally and he thought the whisky he had drunk yesterday must have gone to his head as he thought he was on West Market street when he went into the Davidson residence and asked for something to eat. He was very anxious that his name be kept out of the newspapers.

Thomas Lee had a go on Second street yesterday with Jacob Daun and Thomas got badly used up. He was arrested by Officer Woods and was fined $9.60 for his part in the occurrence.

Jacob Daun, who did the hard hitting that knocked out Lee, was arrested by Officer Davidson and was fined $10.60.

Anthony Lavelle, better known as Tony Lavelle, was drunk and viewed the fight. He was arrested by Officer McDonald and was fined $7.60 for his seat at the battle. The trio didn't have any money and they are all in jail.

Dunk Pickering was released last evening after the mayor heard his story and that of Miss Lid Zook, who claimed he had stolen her pocketbook. According to the stories told the parties had been together a great deal that evening and had both been drinking. He claimed that she had given him her pocketbook and there was nothing in it when he got it. The mayor decided there was not enough evidence to hold him.

James Landis will get a hearing some time today. Last evening a man named Mercer returned five knives and five forks to Officer White, and said they had been sold to him by Landis. Mrs. Willis Nichols, who had her goods stored in the Patterson foundry, said there was missing two child's sets, three knives, three forks and 12 spoons. None of the stuff at the mayor's office belonged to her except some of the dress trimming.

The case of Harry Jackson, who fell over the hill at the flint mill Monday evening, was reported to the township trustees and they decided to send him to Pittsburg where he belongs. This morning Jackson was not able to walk, and it was decided to notify the infirm directors of his condition and they will care for him until he is able to be moved.

A LOST GIRL.

A Two-Year-Old Youngster of Sunnyside Causes Some Excitement.

Nora Ward, a two year old child whose parents live in Sunnyside, yesterday morning about 11 o'clock wandered away from home and her parents started out to find her, but they didn't get the child until 1 o'clock. She had wandered as far as the Diamond and here Miss Anna Thompson found her running around with a little red cart and as happy as you please. Miss Thompson took the child to city hall where she remained very contentedly until her parents came after her. The police desire that all persons who have lost children notify the city hall and fire department and in this way they may be saved much anxiety. All children that are found should be taken to one of the two places.

TRADES COUNCIL

Seated a Large Number of New Delegates Last Night.

At the regular meeting of Trades council last night there was a large attendance and the session was a long one.

A large number of delegates were received. Following is a list of delegates seated:

Carpenters and joiners union, No. 328, W. A. Ross, A. P. Cope.
Kilnmen, No. 9, William Schepp.
Jiggermen, No. 12, William Anderson.

Teamsters, No. 1954, Howard Moon.
No. 4, Robert Salisbury.

Federal Labor, No. 6875, Talbert McCain, Frank T. Hale, Frank T. Patterson.

Plumbers, No. 140, Harvey Kemper, Benjamin Davidson.

Teamsters' local reported that their differences with the employers had been adjusted and their scale calling for $1.75 per day signed.

The reports of delegates from local unions showed the locals to be prosperous.

CANONSBURG POTTERY.

A Local Architect Says He Is Now Drawing the Plans For It.

A local architect says he was engaged this week to draw the plans for the new pottery at Canonsburg. It will be a five kiln plant, 300 by 330 feet, somewhat similar to the plant at Wellsville. The buildings will be one and two stories.

BRATT ESCAPES AGAIN

After Being Formally Adjudged Insane He

BREAKS OUT OF THE INFIRMARY

By Removing the Bolts and Bars From His Cell and Is Now on His Way to This City—Officers Are After Him and Hope to Recapture Him Easily.

LISBON, Oct. 19.—[Special]—Joe Bratt, of East Liverpool, who was adjudged insane by Judge Boone last week, escaped from a cell at the infirmary last night by removing some bolts and bars. He is supposed to have made tracks for Liverpool and officers are after him and hope to recapture him easily.

THE SALOON INDICTMENTS.

Lisbon Paper Says East Liverpool Men May Be In the Next Bunch.

Speaking of the 60 bills returned by the last grand jury against saloonkeepers, the Buckeye State says:

"East Liverpool seems to have escaped unusually well, there having been, so far as heard from, no indictments returned against liquor dealers in that city. The end has not yet been reached, however, and there may be a number of indictments in the large number yet to be heard from."

UMBRELLAS.

They Were Left on a Porch and Now Are Among the Missing.

A number of young men and their best girls a few evenings ago attended a party on Sixth street and as it was raining they took umbrellas along. The umbrellas were left on the porch and when the young men were ready to go home they discovered that someone had taken the whole bunch. The same evening several umbrellas were stolen from a party on Calcutta road.

A Comparison.

A poll of the Second precinct of the Third ward in East Liverpool shows 317 Republicans, 48 Democrats and 14 Prohibitionists, with nine doubtful. Three years ago the precinct voted 228 for McKinley, 100 for Bryan; in 1897, 141 for Bushnell and thirty-eight for Chapman. A corresponding increase throughout the county would make the vote for Nash practically unanimous.—Buckeye State.

New Buildings.

Irondale's business men will erect new business blocks on the sites of those recently burned down. It is expected that the new buildings will be better and larger than the old.—Buckeye State.

Football Game.

Saturday afternoon a football game will be played at Columbian park between the Diamond and Tiger teams of this city.

HOW'S SELF SACRIFICE.

Young Millionaire Gives His Wealth to the Poor.

James Eads How is a grandson of the famous engineer who built the Mississippi river jetties and bridges. His father was president of the Wabash railroad. His own personal fortune amounts to about $1,000,000. He is a graduate of Harvard and was a famous athlete during his college days. Now he has renounced his fortune, is earning his living as a day laborer and announces that he will spend his life in promoting the interests of a new monastic order, to be called the Brotherhood of Daily Life.

Mr. How started his work by walking into the office of the mayor of St. Louis and handing him a check for every cent he possessed, with the request that he get the check cashed and spend the money for the benefit of the poor. The mayor thought him insane and refused to take the money. Now he is in New York, walking about the streets with a tin bucket, looking for work. His new order, the Brotherhood of Daily Life, is to have no connection with any of the churches, though it will not be antagonistic to them. He hopes that the members of the brotherhood will in time be called upon to do work for all the denominations. He refuses to spend any of his fortune, because he says he did not earn it and therefore has no moral right to it. He has secured many members for his new brotherhood in New York.

Missing Time.

What do people do with their surplus time? They used to weave the cloth their garments were made of and make them by hand. They now get them ready made at the stores. It takes less time to do every act of drudgery than it used to take. What becomes of the surplus time? If we have gained an hour over our ancestors, what becomes of it?—Atchison Globe.

REVOLTING.

McLean's Enquirer "Personal" Column.

IMMORAL AND DANGEROUS

Free Advertising For All That Is Debauching Is McLean's Policy.

RUINED LIVES, BLASTED HOMES.

Leading Religious Editors Condemn It as Utterly Vicious.

MR. McLEAN RESPONSIBLE FOR IT

Is a Man Who Will Prostitute His Newspaper to Such Debasement Uses Entitled to Public Respect, Much Less the Highest Honor in the Gift of the People of Ohio?

The Cincinnati Enquirer circulates throughout the state of Ohio. A newspaper is a public institution, and is therefore open to condemnation for its failure to uphold high moral ideals.

No war is waged against The Enquirer's political teachings. It has the right to advocate its political ideas without interference, but where there is a serious infraction of morals it becomes a duty to condemn its corrupting influence.

The debasing feature of The Enquirer is its personal column. The personal column is a black spot on the morals of Ohio. There is no necessity of turning back and searching through the columns of past editions. Any issue will convict it. The personal column carries at its head this striking notice:

"Free Advertising—No Charge."

The inducement held out to the public to patronize this column is FREE ADVERTISEMENTS. Three lines of any character can be inserted free. Clandestine correspondents are invited; flirtations of a dangerous character are encouraged; assignments are brazenly arranged; suggestive advertisements of a debauching character appear daily. Attention is directed to the following advertisements, which, for convenience, are divided into two kinds.

First—Correspondents Solicited.

The following are taken from the issues of Sept. 7, 1899:

"Gentlemen correspondents wanted. Box 142, ———, Ohio."

"Gentlemen correspondents wanted by two young ladies. Address Box 330 and 310, ———, Ohio."

"Gentlemen correspondents wanted. Box 80, ———, Ohio."

Do the parents of the young women who thus seek gentlemen correspondents approve of this method of finding them? They may be in entire ignorance of their act. The towns referred to are small, and only an occasional copy of The Enquirer finds its way into these communities. The young people, knowing this secret avenue of procuring correspondents, rent a box in the postoffice, put an ad. in The Enquirer, and avail themselves of a clandestine correspondence. The correspondents are mainly among the girls of rural communities. Some designing fellow takes advantage of the opportunity, answers the advertisement, and, unknown to the girl's parents, a correspondence is carried on. The unknown knave finally makes a proposition to the young girls to visit the city, and the quiet country girl, overcome by the rosy pictures of city life, flees from her home and is ruined, and the blighted life of the fair young girl joins the sad procession of those who are the submerged tenth in a great city.

Second—Assignations Arranged.

The old and young make use of The Enquirer as a medium for immoral purposes. The following advertisements are taken from the issue of Sept. 13, 1899:

"Indianapolis, middle-aged gentleman, who met lady on Pennsylvania avenue and afterward walked a few squares with her, let her know why he failed to keep the appointment for Monday night; will be at Pennsylvania and Ohio avenue, if possible, same time Monday; if not write to C. Y. A., Enquirer."

The following advertisements are taken from the issue of Sept. 10, 1899: "Anna, will see you at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Pumpkin Roller."

"Red Hat, was at appointed place

Wednesday evening; didn't see you; make another date and bring friend. W. F. H., Box ———, City."

The following is from the issue of Sept. 13, 1899:

"Old Darling, Wednesday night at the same old place. Old Rye."

"Black-eyed Susan, arrange for a place of meeting. Liverpool."

"Ned J., be at the same old place. Maud."

The Sunday edition of The Enquirer is the grand carnival of immorality. It is the red letter day of lust. The Sunday edition of the Cincinnati Enquirer for Aug. 13, 1899 contains 204 personal advertisements. The following are selected from the columns of that issue:

"A widow of 30, tall, of prepossessing appearance and of good repute, would like to meet a middle-aged gentleman of good financial and social standing. Address E. M., Box ———, Dayton, O."

"A gentleman of 35, with means, would like to correspond with a tall, stout lady weighing about 200 pounds, with domestic tastes, with a view to marriage. Address ——— Box, Pittsburgh, Pa."

"A talented and attractive young miss asks the financial aid of some generous soul, who will give her a helping hand in pursuit of the dramatic art. Security given. Y., Enquirer."

"A nice little widow, with means, would like the acquaintance of a jolly bachelor; object amusement. Address X., Enquirer Office."

"Gentleman of means, middle aged, nice habits, kind and liberal, desires the acquaintance of a nice and pretty young lady, 18 to 22 years of age. One employed in an office or store preferred. Will assist the right party. Please give postoffice address. Address S——, Enquirer Office."

It Has Blasted Homes.

The personal column of The Enquirer has blasted happy homes, ruined and debased young women, corrupted and depraved young men; the courts have been the beneficiary of its victims through estrangements and divorces. Archbishop Elder delivered a sermon in the cathedral in Cincinnati, 1883, in which he condemned most bitterly the course of this newspaper. "Every day it is filled with reading matter that is filthy, nasty, obscene and abominable. The amount of injury that paper is doing right in our midst is incalculable."

At the county federation of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Franklin county, at its meeting Sept. 16, in Columbus, O., Mrs. Mary W. Cassell, the chairman of the committee on resolutions, reported the following, which was adopted:

Whereas, The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, as an advocate of purity in literature and art, have for years recognized and deplored the immoral tendency of the personal column in the Cincinnati Enquirer, as an agency in debauching young men and women of our state and a potent influence in increasing the business of the divorce court; therefore be it

Resolved, That we improve this opportunity, when the Cincinnati Enquirer is brought prominently before the nation by the candidacy of its owner for governor of our state, to protest against the continuance of this pernicious literature; and be it further

Resolved, To request the management of the Cincinnati Enquirer to strike from their columns the brazen advertisements of the brothel and house of assignation.

What Religious Editors Say.

The following is the personal opinion of the Rev. Dr. David H. Moore, D. D., editor of the Western Christian Advocate, Cincinnati, O.:

"The most disgraceful and lamentable thing in journalism in Cincinnati is the Enquirer's personal columns. The paper itself, as a newspaper, is almost indispensable, and yet every number is injected with the virus of sensuality."

The following is the opinion of the Rev. George W. Lasher, D. D., editor of the Journal and Messenger, Cincinnati, O.:

"I regard the personal columns of the Cincinnati Enquirer as one of the most potent agencies for the debauching and ruin of our young people. Its wide circulation enlarges its power for evil, and the character of the communications found in that column makes it certain that those who patronize it are either unclean when they begin, or become unclean before they cease its use. In my judgment it ought to be suppressed."

The following is the personal opinion of Rev. H. Max Lentz, editor of the Lutheran World, Cincinnati, O.:

"The Enquirer is a paper of such enterprise that it is a matter of great regret to all friends of moral order to see it continue the personal column from day to day, which is a rank offense against sound morals and pure living. We would be glad to see such united and hearty action taken against this great evil that it could be suppressed and the paper made fit for decent homes, as it can never be with that disgraceful feature for which there is not a sound excuse in pure morals, or even in decent policy. Let the personal column be suppressed, even if it is necessary to quit the paper."

Ought to Be Suppressed.

The following is the personal opinion of Rev. John H. Ely, editor of the Church Chronicle, Cincinnati, O.:

"The personal column of the Cincinnati Enquirer is a shame to the community and a blot on the character of the man who is responsible for it. It is an abuse of the right to print a paper. If there were any legal way to suppress it, it should be suppressed."

The politics of the editor of the Enquirer may be nearer right than my own. In making this statement I distinctly wish to recognize his freedom to both his political views and ambitions, but it is a pity that a possible governor of Ohio should be responsible for such a thing as the "personal column" of the Cincinnati Enquirer."

The following is the personal opinion of Rev. S. P. Spreng, editor of the Evansville Messenger, Cleveland, O.:

"I consider the so-called personal column in the Cincinnati Enquirer a most dangerous and polluting feature, and one which should be promptly suppressed by the strong arm of the law, if that can be done. Surely our laws against obscene literature would apply to that column, full as it is of the abomination of iniquity itself. The safety and virtue of our young women and young men must not be allowed to be menaced and destroyed by such open wantonness, such flaunting of vice in our very faces."

The following is the personal opinion of the Rev. G. M. Matthews, D. D., associate editor of the Religious Telescope, Dayton, O.:

"I do not hesitate to say that the 'personal column' in the Cincinnati Enquirer is a shame to the community and a blot upon decent society. Its continuance will corrupt and ruin many more young people and add to the long list already debauched and disgraced. Let every legitimate means be used at once for the suppression of this vicious piece of literature."

Blot on Decent Society.

The following is the personal opinion of Hon. F. L. Rowe, manager of the Christian Leader, Cincinnati, O.:

"The personal column of the Cincinnati Enquirer is of such a revolting character that I would not under any circumstances permit the paper in my home, or any place where the pure and innocent could be defiled by its perusal. The pure moral sentiment of our citizens ought to cry aloud, with one voice, against this great stain on our home reading."

What do the fathers and mothers say of this bold and defiant newspaper, that cheerfully opens an avenue to debauch and degrade boys and girls? What do the Christian people of this state say of a man who glories in the fact that the columns of his newspaper is the medium of liasons and assignations? What do the teachers of the public schools of Ohio say concerning a newspaper that makes the pathway for immorality easy for the youth to travel? What do the clergymen of Ohio say concerning a newspaper that wrecks homes and blasts the lives of young men and women?

And what would they think of its owner, the man responsible for this personal column, who could stop it any day if he would, as governor of Ohio?

NEW JERSEY TRUST LAW.

A New York Lawyer Defended It Before the Industrial Commission. Other Witnesses.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—There were six witnesses before the industrial commission, the first of the list being Mr. James B. Dill, a New York attorney, who was presented as an expert on the corporation laws of New Jersey. The law in his opinion were not only just, and fair in their requirements, both to the corporations and the public, but they provided heavy penalties for their violation. But, while all this was true, Mr. Dill said he feared that the laws had been more honored in the breach than in the observance. He also thought that many of the corporations were organized at much too high a figure.

Mr. Dill gave several reasons for New Jersey's popularity with the corporations as an organizing state. The state has a financial surplus, rendering it probable that the corporations will be drawn upon in case of a squeeze to make up a deficit, the corporation laws have practically remained unchanged for the past 30 years, and the taxes in New Jersey are fixed and immovable. He thought the time would come when corporations would be controlled by a national law.

The other five witnesses dealt with the practical operation of the New Jersey laws. Four of them agreed to supply lists of the companies represented by them, the number aggregating about 1,450, with an aggregate capital of about $1,800,000,000.

Dennis B. Ryan, an attorney of Jersey City, testified that he was in the habit of allowing his name to be used as New Jersey agent by corporations of that state, often terminating the connection after a day's service. He had within the past year or two thus represented about 75 companies.

ENCOURAGE REBELS.

SIGNIFICANT STATEMENTS OF GENERAL ALEJANDRINO.

"United States Papers" of the Enquirer Stamp Insite Tagal Rebels to Continue War on Our Boys in Blue—Is This Treason?

A "special cable to the Enquirer" printed on the first page of McLean's newspaper in a recent issue under big headlines, gives an interview with the rebel general, Alejandrino, who went to the American lines under a flag of truce to confer with General Otis about ending the war, as he alleged. The "interview" was obtained by the Enquirer correspondent and is so stated in the introduction. The following words of the rebel general, printed in McLean's newspaper, must awaken the indignation of every patriotic American.

"WE KNOW EVERY MOVE THAT YOU MAKE, AND GET EVERY DAY THE LOCAL AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS. WE KNOW WHAT THE UNITED STATES PAPERS SAY. We believe that a few men whom you call politicians are waging this war, and that the people of the United States will change soon in our favor."

Here is absolute proof of the treason of so-called anti-imperialists. "We know every military move that you make," says the rebel general. How does he know? "We get every day the American newspapers." Are the rebels furnished with copies of the Cincinnati Enquirer When Alejandrino speaks of "the United States papers," through which he claims to get the sentiment of the United States on the Philippine war, he evidently refers to that portion of the Democratic press which openly supports the enemies of the United States. Mr. McLean's Enquirer is the leading paper of this class. In addition to newspapers like McLean's Enquirer, Aguinaldo and his people are supplied with all the literature issued by the Atkinson bureau. In no country in the world except the United States would this coterie of incendiaries be allowed to run at large for a single day, much less to send their traitorous stuff to the armed enemies of the nation. The bold words of the rebel general plainly point to a conspiracy as serious and treasonable as that in which Benedict Arnold was the central figure. There can be no doubt that individuals of the Atkinson, Lentz, Altgeld, McLean stripe are in secret communication with the rebels and furnish Aguinaldo with information. They inspired the Aguinaldo rebellion originally by refusing to ratify the treaty with Spain and have continued to encourage Aguinaldo in every way in their power since. Do the loyal people of Ohio propose to endorse such attacks on our boys in blue by electing McLean governor next month?

SEEING IS BELIEVING

PRESIDENT SCHURMAN CONVINCED OF WISDOM OF EXPANSION.

His Views on the Subject Coincide With Those of Admiral Dewey—He is Confident That the Insurrection is Losing Strength

Jacob Gould Schurman, president of Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y., who was appointed president of the Philippines commission, opened the eyes of the American people to the evil effects of the demagogic utterances of the anti-expansionists, when he said: "When once the Filipino's confidence has been gained, if dealt with in a frank, straightforward manner, the misunderstanding will be dissipated and the Filipino will realize that the American is his friend."

The anti-expansionist has represented by mouth and pen that the American is the Filipino's foe, that he will enslave him, appoint over him taskmasters with cruel whips, rob him, murder his children, and be a greater tyrant in every respect than the Spaniard had been. This is the hideous picture painted by the anti-expansionists that terrifies the Filipino. Dissipate this misunderstanding, says President Schurman and the Filipino will realize that the American is his friend.

Mr. Schurman entered upon his duties as commissioner with a prejudice against expansion. After personally investigating the subject in the Philippines, he returns heartily in favor of retaining the islands.

He is confident that the insurrection is losing strength; that were it not for fear of Aguinaldo and the encouragement of the anti-expansionists at home many of the natives would withdraw from his standard.

Mr. Schurman also stamps as an infamous falsehood the statements that the McKinley administration is not taking good care of the soldier boys, by saying: "The American army is the finest, best fed and equipped force in the world." He is also enthusiastic in his praise of the conduct of the war.

President Schurman's words will have more weight with the American people than the utterances made for political effect by the Democratic anti-expansionists. Mr. Schurman is an able scholar, well versed in constitutional law, a keen and accurate observer of persons and events, and a man of unimpeachable integrity, whose judgment is worthy of frank and full acceptance.

HIS LABOR LEADERS.

McLean Is Suspicious of Them and Works His Enquirer Correspondents.

The following telegram was sent to every correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer:

"Cincinnati, O., Sept. 23.—Please send by mail list of trade organizations in your town, with address of secretary.

(Signed) "ENQUIRER."

The above is significant. The fact is there is trouble at McLean headquarters because of the demands for money by the "secret service leaders" who have undertaken to deliver the labor vote to Mr. McLean. Moreover, Mr. McLean prefers The Enquirer correspondents for work ordinarily assigned to the campaign labor bureau, because he thinks he can trust them more than his labor lieutenants.

McLean is devoting a lot of attention to the officers of certain labor organizations. He does not pretend to argue the issues before the workingmen and agree to abide by their decision. He simply hires a number of so-called labor leaders at a stated sum per day, who are expected by secret work to bring about so-called indorsements of McLean by labor organizations. The character of this "secret work" is well known to the Republican state committee, and is generally understood by the self-respecting laboring men of the state, who comprise the overwhelming majority of organized labor.

McLean wants an up-to-date list of the officers of trades unions for his own peculiar purposes. He has boasted among his rich friends of what money will do with organized labor, and is trying to prove the truth of his boast.

The organized labor of the state, however, understand Mr. McLean and his methods, and present indications are that he will not realize well on his investments in alleged labor leaders.

Judge Nash is speaking from the platform every day and openly discusses every question that enters into the campaign. John R. McLean maintains an absolute silence on his "practical" remedy for the trust evil, as well as on all the other issues. The people of Ohio have a right to know just what McLean proposes to do. They demand that he fully explain where he stands on silver, on trusts, on the renomination of Bryan and on all the other questions of the day. They contrast his silence with the frankness of Judge Nash in a way that is not flattering.

The future of prosperity is now entirely in the hands of the people of Ohio. The Republican party gave it to them by wise legislation. A vote to keep that party in power will be an expression of appreciation of prosperity. A vote for the Democratic party will endanger good times.

Where France Excels.

The people of the United States are fairly well supplied with horseless carriages, chairless bicycles, smokeless powder and wireless telegraphy, says the St. Paul Globe. France, however, rather excels us in bloodless duels.

Said East Liverpool People Favored Expansion,

AND EVERY ONE OF THEM

Wants a Copy of the New Expansion Atlas, Published by Rand McNally, and Now Being Given Away by the NEWS REVIEW---Read What It Is Like---Call and See It.

The NEWS REVIEW has just closed a contract with Rand, McNally & Co., of Chicago, the famous map publishers, for the EXCLUSIVE sale and distribution of the new Rand McNally Expansion Atlas

In this city and vicinity.

This is the revised edition and is right up to date. It contains general maps covering every part of the world, complete and accurate, but its special interest is found in the new maps and descriptive matter pertaining to the

New American Colonies,

The Philippines, Hawaii, Porto Rico, Cuba, Manila and vicinity, including a chronology of all the important events of the Spanish-American war.

The Dewey Souvenir,

A handsomely engraved colored plate, containing excellent portraits of Admirals Dewey and Farragut and the American naval commanders in the Orient, forms the frontispiece of the book. In the center is a beautiful picture in colors of the Battle of Manila Bay, showing the position of each of the American and Spanish vessels and the scenery of the bay, drawn from official descriptions.

Photographs

Of the leading American war ships and portraits of all the presidents are also shown. All the maps are fully and completely indexed so that it is possible in a moment to find any place desired. Population, area and other interesting information is given briefly and accurately up to date.

The map showing how the United States have expanded since the foundation of this government is one of the most valuable features of the book, as it shows at a glance.

The NEWS REVIEW proposes to GIVE AWAY one copy of the Expansion Atlas to each new subscriber who pays in advance

A Dollar For Ten Weeks'

Subscription for this paper, the regular rate without the Atlas. To the public generally the price is

UNION LABELS.

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours and union labor employed.

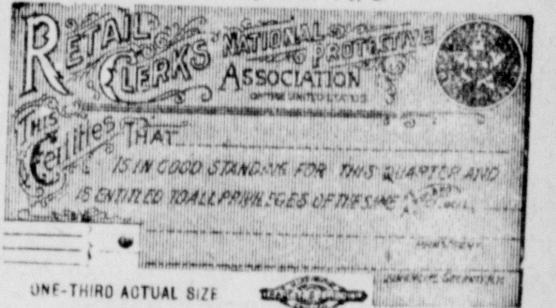

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are shown to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns

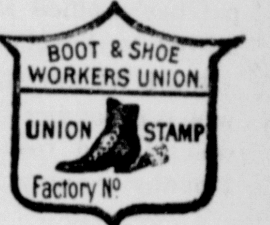

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card Ask for it when making your purchases. Endorsed by the A. F. of L.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailors' Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

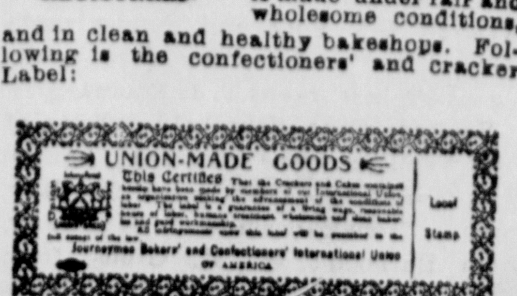

The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeries. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

PRESIDENT REACHED HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinley and Party Arrived in Washington Friday From Their Long Trip.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—President McKinley and party reached here today, a total of about 5,000 miles having been covered and about 100 speeches having been made by the president.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 19.—President McKinley's special train arrived here about 5 o'clock last evening and the chief executive delivered the last speech of his tour. The train was backed into a side track and the president and his cabinet went on foot to a platform nearby. Apparently everybody in town had crowded into the two streets facing the platform and it was with great difficulty that the president could make himself heard. It was estimated that 20,000 people were packed into the narrow space surrounding the speaker's stand. As the president proceeded they became quieter and enthusiastically cheered every point in his address.

Secretary of the Navy Long was introduced and also spoke.

Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock also spoke briefly.

Having taken dinner aboard the train the president, Mrs. McKinley and Miss Mary Barber were driven to the residence of Dr. Deetrick, in North Phelps street, to attend the wedding of Miss Anna Viola Deetrick to Mr. William McKinley Duncan, son of Andrew K. Duncan, and nephew of President McKinley. The parlors of the Deetrick home were tastefully decorated with orchids and smilax.

The wedding ceremony was performed after 8 o'clock, Rev. S. R. Frasier officiating. An hour later, the president and cabinet entered carriages and were driven to St. Columbias hall where a public reception was given. President McKinley greeted hundreds of his boyhood friends with a hearty handshake and a kind word. The reception lasted until about 10 o'clock. The party returned to the train, which left for Pittsburg over the Pennsylvania line.

When the train reached Cleveland a reception committee and members of the city council, headed by Mayor J. H. Farley, welcomed the president. Senator Hanna was warmly greeted at the depot by the entire party.

Carriages had been provided for a ten mile drive out Euclid avenue through Gordon and Wade parks.

President and Mrs. McKinley dropped out of the line for a time and called on Mrs. Duncan, the president's sister, whose home is on Oakdale avenue.
